THE CZAR'S CONDITION.

Somewhat Improved Though Still Very Critical.

A Complete Account of the Illness of the Monarch From the Day of the First Symptoms.

ST PETERSBURG, Oct 31.—An official bulletin issued at 10¾ o'clock this morning says that the czar slept for a few hours last night and that the bleeding had somewhat subsided. Otherwise the condition of the patient is not changed. The bulletin is signed, as usual, by the physicians who are in attendance upon his majesty.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct 31.—The Official Messenger, publishes the following account of the czar's illness: "The disquieting symptoms which manifested themselves at Spala became less marked in the early days of his majesty's sojourn at Livadia. The czar was able to attend divine service after arriving there and he was also able to drive about. Then symptoms of weakness appeared with failing appetite, loss of sleep, weakening of the heart's action, increase of albumen and swelling of the extremities On October 19 there was a return of the czar's appetite and on October 20 he was able to obtain the rest in sleep which produced a notable increase in his strength, and a reduction of the albumen. The same day the queen of Greece arrived and the protecressbieter, Father Ivan of Cronstadt, who offered up prayers for the emperor, also reached Livadia. His majesty then received holy communion, which assisted in tranquilizing his mind On October 22 the emperor prayed with Father Ivan. Princess Alix of Hesse-Darmstadt, arrived that evening and by order of the czar she was received ceremoniously with a guard of honor and with the military band playing The meeting of the czar with Princess Alix, whom he had long been craving to see, strongly excited the patient in spite of the joy which the meeting caused him. At this the majesty's physicians feared the effects of this excitement, but the night passed favorably. There was continued oedema of the feet on October 26 which hindered free movement. During all this time the czar in spite of his sufferings did not neglect state business, but at the urgent instance of his physicians he handed over documents relating to current affairs and reports requiring considerable examination to the czarewitch. His majesty, however, decided the most important cases and signed the state papers It is semi-officially announced today that all reports regarding the immediate marriage of the czarewitch to Princess Alix are unfounded. It is added that it was never proposed since the illness of the czar that the marriage should take place hurriedly.

The train was through one from New York at 7:30 p m, and due in Buffalo at 7.10 this morning.

The accident was the result of the express train plunging into a coal train engine which was backing down the southbound track, and which by reason of the open switch passed onto the northbound track just as the flying express train came along. The coal train crew consisted of Engineer James Lynott, of this city, and Fireman Elmer C. Scull, of Moscow. The former was instantly killed and Scull died at the Moses Taylor hospital here of his injuries. The express train engineer was Valentine Butler, of Binghampton, and his fireman was Wm. C. In the Handsome Residence of Secretary Carlisle.

The Marriage of Miss Thompson, of Kentucky, to Mr. Leonard Davis, of Colorado.

WASHINGTON, Oct 31.—Secretary Carlisle's handsome residence on "K" street was the scene today of the most brilliant society event of the fall season—the marriage of Miss Mattie Thompson, of Kentucky, and Mr. William Leonard Davis, of Colorado. Miss Thompson is the daughter of Col Philip B Thompson, a prominent Kentuckian, and ex member of congress, and Mr. Davis was for several years vice president of the New York World Publishing company, and has extensive mining interests in Colorado to which he devotes his time.

The ceremony took place at noon under gas light in the large drawing room, the walls of which were almost concealed under draperies of smilax, plumes and wild laurel vines, twined with white roses and orchids. From the ceiling was suspended a chime of wedding bells under which the wedding party stood during the ceremony. The second parlor was decorated with American beauty roses—a back ground against which the scarlet uniforms of the musicians of the Marine band made a brilliant show. The dining room beyond all had decorations of smilax and American beauty roses.

The wedding march, from Lohengrin, was rendered by the Marine band while the bride entered on the arm of her father. The service was that of the Episcopal church, read by Rev Dr Mackay Smith, the rector of St John's. There were no bridesmaids nor ushers, only members of the two families and the most intimate friends, including Secretary Carlisle's family, were present at the ceremony.

The bride, who is a handsome brunet, wore a gown of heavy white satin by Worth, of Paris, trimmed with antique Venetian point, a tulle vail, with a coronet of orange blossoms and two rich diamond crescents, the gift of the groom. Her trousseau was an extensive one. The traveling dress is of dark green crepon, with applique of old Russian lace, and a wrap of short clipped Persian lamb Mrs. Carlisle wore a Worth gown of mauve and gray satin, elaborately trimmed in cream chiffon and lace. Mrs Joseph Pulitzer, sister of the groom, wore a handsome Worth gown of purple velvet. There were numerous and costly gifts.

After a reception from 12 30 to 3 o'clock the couple took an afternoon train for New York, whence they will go to Colorado Springs for the winter In the spring they contemplate a long trip abroad.

Official, and resident society was largely represented at the reception Conspicuous among the guests were: Mrs. President Cleveland, Secretary and Mrs. Gresham; Secretary and Mrs Hoke Smith; Postmaster General and Mrs. Bissell; Attorney General and Mrs Olney, Secretary and Mrs Herbert; Secretary and Miss Morton; Assistant Secretary Hamlin, of the treasury; Mrs. Jefferson Davis; Miss Winnie Davis, Mrs. General Hazen, Mrs Bugher, Mr and Mrs. John McLean, Mr and Mrs. Jesse Tisson, of Baltimore, and Mr. and Mrs. Delancey Nicoll, of New York.

POPULISTS CAUSE A TANGLE.

Object to the Designation of Independence on the Official Ballot.

CELINA, Ohio, Oct 31.—The political situation in Mercer county is mixed. A few days ago F. M Dick, a member of the straight populist party, who had been nominated for commissioner by that party at the Rockford convention, filed a petition in common pleas court of Mercer county for himself and others praying the court to enjoin the fusion branch of the people's party from placing the names of candidates selected by the conference committee of the independent democrats, populists and republicans on the official ballot under the emblem of the people's party, and to enjoin the independent democrats from placing the same names on the official ballot under the title of independent democrats The case was heard by Judge Richie at Celina Monday, during which it was developed that the 300 names necessary to the petition for an independent ticket on the ballots had not been legally certified to. The case went to the supreme court.

NIHILISTS' CIRCULAR.

Rejoicing Over the Approaching Death of the Czar.

Says He Has Been a Disgrace to Russia and Has Too Long Ruled the Nation.

LONDON, Oct 31.—A circular showing a blood red bomb, revolver and dagger, eminating from the refugee nihilists in Switzerland, is circulating there and in London. It says:

"To Our Brothers, the Oppressed in Russia

"The tyrant, Alexander, autocrat czar, hangman and assassin of Michaeloff, Russiakoff, Kibalitchik, Nelotzoff, Sophia Perowskaia, Jessie Halfmann, and many others, purveyor of the Siberian gallows, persecutor of the Jews, is on the point of expiating his crimes. He is dying of a mysterious illness, a well merited punishment. Venal science, his Zacharins, Hirchs and Popoffs, can do nothing to prolong a life which has been devoted to violence and oppression. At length the monster is going to disappear. Hurrah! The day has passed when a man ought to be allowed by right of birth to dispose of the liberty and lives of a hundred million of other men. Let his son, the czarewitch, as well as his ambitious rivals, the Grand Dukes Valadimir and Michael, who are ready to assassinate in accordance with the traditions of the Romanoff family to get possession of the bloody heritage. Let all understand that every hour and at every step they will find themselves face to face with the inflexible will of the revolutionists. Let us leave to the hypocritical liberals the task of covering with flowers the horrible corpse of the scoundrel, who is leaving this world after having too long dishonored it So long as the Russian slaves do not possess the land, so long as an infernal autocracy, served by a rapacious and shameless feudality, makes Russia a disgrace to the civilized world, we shall always applaud any blow at dynasty or provoke it. Long live liberty and the revolution."

CRIMINAL LIBEL.

Mayor Hopkins Seeks Redress for Alleged Wrongs.

He Charges Republican State Chairman Tanner, With Circulating Libellous Literature.

CHICAGO, Oct 31.—Mayor Hopkins today went before the grand jury for the purpose of securing an indictment against Chairman John R Tanner, of the republican central committee The mayor charges that Tanner circulated campaign literature containing charges that the former had levied blackmail on the vices of the city Mayor Hopkins declared today that he will relentlessly prosecute the republican leader for criminal libel, and said he had no doubt that the grand jury would return an indictment Chairman Tanner, in anticipation of arrest, remained at republican headquarters with a bevy of boudsmen and attorneys, ready to resist any attempt to send him to jail.

After the mayor had laid his evidence before the grand jury, a hot session followed, resulting in the refusal of the jury to take any action in the matter. Mayor Hopkins then went before a justice of the peace to swear out a warrant for Tanner's arrest.

ATTEMPTED WRECKING.

Fiends Obstruct a Railway Track to Ditch a Train.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Oct 31.—An attempt was made to wreck the Boston and Chicago special on the Lake Shore railway last night, near Lake View, ten miles west of Buffalo, by placing a plank and stones on the track just west of a siding. Fortunately, the obstructions were discovered, and the train was stopped in time. Superintendent Niles does not credit the theory of train robbers. An investigation is now in progress.

Fifteen Insane People Burned.

STOCKHOLM, Sweden, Oct. 31.—An asylum for the insane at Joenkoping has been destroyed by fire. Fifteen of the inmates were burned to death.

A HORRIBLE CRIME.

A Train Wrecker Confesses to the Deed.

Says He Intended to Rob the Express Car and Dead Passengers and Trainmen.

MERRILL, Wis, Oct 31.—Wholesale murder and express robbery was the motive that inspired the recent train wrecking on the "Soo" road. Two men, charged with the murder of the man who lost his life by their work, were given a preliminary hearing here today and were held to trial. One of the prisoners has confessed and his story details the methods pursued to derail the through Minneapolis-Boston limited near Hafford junction on the night of October 7 In the crash Fireman Charles Cottrell was instantly killed and Engineer James Dutch was seriously injured The plan was to cause a wreck that would kill every person on the train and then rob the safe in the express car, as it was supposed the safe contained a large sum of money.

The man who confessed is Levitt Hazelton, about twenty years old, claiming to be a resident of Brainerd, Minn. His companion is Frank Williams, a short, thick-set man, who claims to have relatives and friends at Appleton, Wis. Williams stoutly maintains that he knows nothing of the wrecking. The officer traced these men from Minneapolis to this city. On September 30 they broke into and stole an oil coat and overcoat in the tool house at Prentice That night they sawed a bridge near that place, but owing to the short time in which they had to do the work it was not complete and the train passed safely over it The following week's time was spent between Prentice and Rhinelander. On October 7 they sawed the piles and stringers of the high bridge near Hafford Junction and the westbound passenger train went crashing down a twenty five foot embankment

The train was running slow, so the wreck was not as complete as the wreckers expected The baggage, smoking and day coaches and two sleepers were not broken and none of the passengers were hurt On October 11 Sheriff Payzer received a message from the station at Irma to look out for two suspicious looking characters That night the sheriff, accompanied by others, stationed himself about a mile from the city, near Lake View, and about 10 o'clock two men appeared They were taken into custody and were found to be heavily armed.

The Soo officials were notified and detectives put on their case. The men were sentenced for thirty days for carrying concealed weapons Last Wednesday they were taken before Court Commissioner Helms, charged with the murder of Fireman Chas. Cotterill. They plead not guilty and their examination was set for today. Last Thursday Levitt Hazelton signified his desire to confess. His statement was taken before Ed Klnetz notary public, in the presence of Sheriff Payzer. District Attorney Anderson and F X. Holz.

FALSE REPORTS

Circulated About Harry Metzger, the Democratic Candidate for Clerk.

As everybody knows, Harry Metzger is the democratic nominee for clerk of the court, and, as everybody knows, he is a young man who has worked his way to position in the ranks of his party and in the estimation of the general public, by individual efforts, recognized merit and honorable conduct.

His personal character and qualifications being unassailable, the republican managers have seen fit to concoct and diligently circulate falsehoods, with the purpose of injuring him, and especially with his Catholic and Lutheran friends. They first made a diligent effort to circulate the report in Catholic districts that he was an A. P. A, and in Lutheran districts that he was a Catholic. It was not intended that Mr. Metzger should hear of these reports. They, however, came to his knowledge, and it took but a short time to put an effectual quietus upon these ridiculous stories

Defeated in their first unfair and dishonorable schemes, they have now started another report equally as false and malicious It is in substance, that he was at the jail when an insane patient requested that a priest should visit him, that Mr Metzger left the jail and went to Mr William A. Evans, got him to shave his mustache, took him to jail, introduced him to the patient as a Catholic priest, and aided Mr Evans in securing from him a confession

There is not a semblance of truth in this whole story, except that he and Mr. W. A Evans were at the jail when Dr. Greenawalt examined the patient, as a physician, to determine whether or not he should be taken to the asylum As a complete refutation of the whole story, in addition to Mr. Metzger's statements, letters from Mr Evans and Dr Greenawalt are here inserted, which are as follows:

FORT WAYNE, Ind., Oct 29, 1894

H. M. METZGER.

DEAR SIR.—I have heard the reports to the effect that I visited the jail with you and that that you there introduced me to an insane patient in the hospital department as a Catholic priest. I wish here to state that the statements are false in every particular and that nothing of the kind occurred. I was never at the jail with you but once.

Yours truly, WM. A. EVANS.

FORT WAYNE, Ind, Oct 31, '94.
151 East Wayne Street.

MR. H. M. METZGER:

DEAR SIR:—The report to effect that I visited the jail in company with you and Mr Wm A Evans, and that you then and there introduced Mr Evans to an insane patient as a Catholic priest, in order to secure a confession, has been reported to me Have no hesitancy in denouncing such report false. Neither introduction nor misrepresentation of the kind occurred

Very Truly Yours,
G. L GREENAWALT.

R Leonard and Attorney Harris, for $10 000 damages for publishing a libel concerning the plaintiff was called up in the circuit court this morning before Judge O'Rourke The plaintiff's attorneys, W. H. Shambaugh and W. P. Breen, made a motion asking that the court order an immediate examination of the defendants as to the truth of the charges made by them in the publication against the plaintiff. After some argument, the defendants expressed their willingness for the immediate examination. The law allows the defendants five days' notice prior to the beginning of such examination, and Attorney Breen inquired whether the defendants were willing to waive that notice and proceed with the examination tomorrow Judge Lowry answered for defendants that they were ready for trial forthwith, today, either before the court or a jury The court therefore, ordered that the preliminary examination of the defendants should take place tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock in the office of Mr. Shambaugh

HORSE STOLEN.

The Rig Driven Off in Broad Daylight.

Was the Property of Myers Brothers, the Ice Dealers—Arrests for the Month—Pickups.

Last evening, about 5 o'clock, Meyers Bros, the ice dealers, had a fine horse and cart stolen from the corner of Wayne and Lafayette streets, and at once reported the fact at police headquarters The animal was a bay and weighed 1200 pounds In the cart were two blankets and a pair of gloves The night police searched the city for the missing rig last night, but up to noon today the horse or cart had not been recovered.

THEY WERE GLAD

The police say that yesterday a number of east side citizens called at the station house to thank the officers for having raided the Siehng saloon last Sunday. One man, who is the father of a large family of boys, came to the station house with tears in his eyes, almost, to thank the police for pulling the place.

BEAT HIS HORSE.

Humane Agent Schlaudroff is after a man who, in a fit of violent temper, picked up a fence rail and began pounding his horse in a shameful manner, nearly killing it.

PICKUPS.

This morning the city police notified Fort Wayne jewelers to be on the lookout for diamonds and jewelry stolen at Chicago yesterday. Two thieves knocked down the proprietor of a store and, locking him in the safe, made off with a heavy load of plunder.

There were seventy-four arrests during the month of October by the city police For the month before election this is unusual.

STILL ANOTHER

At noon a farmer reported at police headquarters that about 11 o'clock someone stole his sorrel horse and buckboard from in front of the Fort Wayne club. There was a chicken coop on the buckboard, and the outfit having rather a plebian appearance, it is strongly suspected that some of the fastidious attaches of the club ordered the outfit driven off and hitched at a point where the odor of the chicken coop would not offend their delicate senses.

THE SENTINEL is in receipt of the following from A. H. Bittinger:

To Emmett V. Harris, Lightning Calculator for the Republican Central Committee:

I see by the little anonymous pamphlet issued and circulated by the republican central committee and the candidates on the republican ticket, on pages 4 and 6, in the cases in the superior and circuit courts—wherein I was attorneys for the plaintiffs—you show that the sums of $4 40 and $4 90 were overcharged, taxed and collected by D. W. Souder, clerk of said courts, amounting in the aggregate to $9 30. Now, Sir, I hereby agree that, if you will proceed at once to collect these fees, as stated by you, by due process of law, I will pay you twenty-five dollars for such collection. Now, that there may be no quibbling about the fee, I will agree to put the money into the hands of the cashier of any of our national banks as soon as you come out of your retreat and enter into a written agreement with me that you will engage to make the collection.

YOUNG LIVES ENDED.

The Death of Fred G. Lepper From Typhoid Fever.

Consumption Cuts Short the Career of James Roche—Other Deaths in the City.

The announcement of the death of Frederick G. Lepper, which occurred this morning at 10 o'clock at his home, 42 Heustis avenue, will come in the nature of a sad surprise to his large circle of friends and acquaintances, who, although they knew he was sick, did not realize that he was so near to death's door. He was taken ill about three weeks ago with typhoid fever and every since then has been confined to his bed and under the constant care of physicians or nurses It was thought yesterday that he was somewhat improved, but during the night his condition changed for the worse and he rapidly sank until death came

"Fred," as he was familiarly known by his friends, was a young man of many excellent traits of character, social, industrious and moral and had before him a life that was full of promise. He was born in Adams township, in this county, on December 24, 1866, and was nearly twenty eight years of age. His parents moved to this city when he was a boy and here he has resided ever since. Some nine years ago he went to work at Wagner's drug store and after remaining there three years, left to clerk for his brother, C. O Lepper, the druggist at 56 West Jefferson street, bt left there about three weeks ago to clerk for Waltemuth & Co, the grocers, in whose employ he was at the time of his death

Mr. Lepper was married about a year ago to Miss Emma Merrilet, and she, with one child, survives him. He was a member of Phœnix lodge, Knights of Pythias, and that organization will have charge of his funeral. He carried an insurance on his life of $1,200 in one of the insurance companies of the Pythian Knights. He was a member of the Second Presbyterian church.

ROCHE

James P. Roche, of 60 Baker street, died last night of consumption. Mr. Roche was formally employed in the Pennsylvania shops, where he had a host of friends He was twenty-two years of age and a member of the A. O. H.

The funeral will be held on Friday Morning from the Cathedral chapel.

BERNING

William E., two and a-half-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Berning, died last evening of croup. A private funeral will be held Thursday from the residence, 50 Smith street.

JOHNSON.

Ora Johnson, the one-year-and-four-months old adopted daughter of Mr. and Mrs Baldwin, of 94 West Superior street, died this morning of inflammation of the bowels.

Roland Willetts Bids Good Bye to His Old Home.

WABASH, Ind., Oct 31.—Roland Willetts, of Andrews, who shot and, it is supposed, fatally wounded Oliver Kutcher, a Wabash engineer, at Lagro, Thursday night, together with his wife, left Andrews yesterday morning, going west on the Wabash railroad. Their destination is unknown, but as they passed through here Mrs. Willetts kept as much out of sight from the platform as possible The people at Andrews deny that Kutcher, the wounded man, is in that place, and say that they have reason to believe he is in Wabash. The whole affair remains as much a mystery as ever and not a doctor can be found in Wabash, Lagro or Andrews who will admit that he knows a thing about the case. It is thought here that Willetts and his wife will remain away until Kutcher either recovers or dies, and in the latter case they may not appear at all.

REPLY TO CHARGES.

The Democratic Committee Reviews the Campaign Issues.

Refutation of the Charges Made Against the Present Court House Officials.

TO THE VOTERS OF ALLEN COUNTY:

The republicans have published and circulated an anonymous document entitled the "Court House Ring." The substance of this document has been published both in the Gazette and News, the republican county organs It contains a rehash of the falsehoods and slanders which have been indulged in by republicans in their campaigns in this county for many years past. In each succeeding election, the people of the county have put their seal of condemnation upon these methods by increasing the democratic majority, and it is firmly believed that at the coming election the people will again condemn it by another increase of the democratic majority. Any ticket that the democratic party may nominate is invariably styled by the republican managers, "A Court House Ring." It makes no difference to these republican managers that the ticket contains farmers from Pleasant, Springfield, Wayne, Washington and Monroe townships, none of whom have ever been in office in or about the court house. They are still on their farms, and will be until by the election they are called to the discharge of then official duties

On the day after the county convention the Fort Wayne News, which is now attacking democratic candidates, had this to say about the entire democratic county ticket

"It will take a ticket composed of your strongest men to make a showing in the fall election against the ticket nominated Saturday This by way of a pointer to the republican convention. * * * Indeed, the democratic ticket has elements of strength which it will not be wise for the republicans to ignore, and there will be need to exercise great care in the selection of candidates if a better ticket is placed in the field by that party."

And of some of the democratic candidates, individually, the News says:

"Harry Metzger ought to feel proud of his victory. It was achieved at very great odds, and shows him to stand high indeed in the estimation of his party. It will take a strong candidate to cut down this candidate's majority to a point anywhere near defeat He has been a faithful, competent and obliging official, and many men recall his kindly services since he has been acting as deputy county clerk."

* * * * * * * * *

"The News believes that Mr. Clarence Edsall will be a hard candidate to defeat There are points in his favor which cannot be controverted * Moreover, it is true that no more capable officer than Mr. Edsall ever held a position in the Allen county court house, and his efficiency and uniform courtesy have not been forgotten by the people of Allen county. The republicans will need their best man if they hope to make a showing against Clarence Edsall."

These are a few of the men whom the News and Gazette, and the scurrilous pamphlet, now charge constitute a corrupt Court House Ring.

The author of these charges could look with toleration upon the gigantic whiskey frauds of a few years ago, involving the republican president's cabinet; upon the boss Shepard's frauds in the City of Washington, and the frauds of Dudley and Dorsey in corrupting the ballot, and all the other frauds within the republican party that shocked the moral sense of all good citizens, and still work for the support of the party within which those frauds originated and had their existence. It comes with poor grace from those people, to manufacture and circulate false charges against their neighbors for the sake of, and with the hope of, getting a few of their dependents in public office in Allen county.

CLERK'S FEES.

The portion of this pamphlet relating to the alleged illegal fees in the clerk's office, was prepared by one E. V Harris, an attorney. This man has estopped himself from talking about excessive fees.

As attorney for one Postal, in the case of Postal vs Bradon in the Allen circuit court, on June 23, 1891, he received a judgment for $200, and took a lien on the judgment for $113 for his alleged attorney's fees.

See order book 28, page 553.

He collected the money, kept out his fee of $113, and his client, Postal, afterwards sued him for excessive fees, which suit is now pending

This is the man whom the republican managers have put forward to charge democratic officials with exorbitant charges.

This man Harris makes a list of estates and charges that illegal fees were taxed in them For their examination and decision, that list was submitted to Mr. Wm. P. Breen, a democrat, and Mr. John Morris, Jr., a republican, constituting the law firm of Breen & Morris, and they have submitted their conclusion, which is as follows.

Oct 26, 1894

Daniel W Soudri, Esq.,
County Clerk, City

DEAR SIR:—In answer to your request for an examination of the alleged overcharges in probate cases appearing on page 8 of the pamphlet denominated "The Court House Ring," we beg to say that we have examined each of the cases mentioned on said page In some cases we have found that a few cents too many have been charged, and in others a few cents too little have been charged. As instancing these charges, you were entitled in the matter of the will of Milton D Longacre to $6 84, whereas you charged but $5 50.

Under the law for the probate matters mentioned on said page 8 of said pamphlet, you were entitled in the aggregate to $118 33, eight cents more than you charged on the fee book.

Respectfully,
BREEN & MORRIS.

This is all that needs to be said about the fees in the list of estates. These two competent lawyers, one of whom always has been, and is now, a zealous republican, have convicted Harris as a falsifier. He does not give the process by which he reaches his ridiculous conclusions as to his alleged illegal fees, in either court. Presumably, he is not competent to do so. It would require too much space here and time to single out each case, give the various steps taken in it, and the proper charge for the same, and get it before the voters before election, and it is not necessary, as one of the lists has been proven to be absolutely false.

This observation, however, may be made. In the cases named by Harris, as in the circuit and superior courts, there were, with a few exceptions, attorneys both for the plaintiffs and defendants. The following lawyers appeared for the parties in those cases, against whom the costs were taxed

Judge W. G Colerick
Judge L. M. Ninde, rep.
Randall & Doughman.
Vesey & Heaton, reps.
A A. Purman and W. G. Colerick.
C. W. Kuhne.
B. F. Harper, rep
Hon. J F. Rodabaugh.
J. K. Aiken.
Hon. W H. Shambaugh.
Hon. M. V. B Spencer
Leonard & Leonard, rep.
W. P. Breen.
Breen & Morris, rep. and dem.
J. M. Robinson.
A. H. Bittenger.
Colerick & Ryan.
G. W. Louttit.
Jas. E. Graham, prob.
J. C. Abel, rep.

Here are twenty-four lawyers who appeared for the parties against whom the costs were taxed. Each and every one of these lawyers is vastly the superior of Harris, in ability, learning, experience and standing Who will accept the unsupported statement of Harris, which he did not dare to sign, as a conviction of each and all of these lawyers being incompetent or careless? Can it be assumed upon the statement of Harris that these lawyers did not know what the legal charges for costs were, or knowingly permitted their clients to be fleeced?

Will the republican lawyers, Judge Ninde, Vesey & Heaton, Leonard & Leonard, John Morris, B. F. Harper and J. C. Abel admit that they have permitted a democratic clerk to rob their clients by illegal fees? All fees in the clerk's office are paid by litigants and not by the tax payers. It is the duty of the attorneys to protect their clients against excessive fees.

COUNTY DEBT AND TAX COLLECTIONS.

With a view of getting figures and statements to slander the board of county commissioners and the county auditor, the republican managers employed George D. Crane to go through the books of the auditor's office. Mr. Crane is an honest and reputable citizen and would not lend himself to the scheme of misrepresentations and falsehoods desired and reported that he found nothing wrong Despairing of getting any one in Allen county mean enough to do the dirty work the republican managers imported a man from Huntington.

The first column of figures in the pamphlet, and as published in the anonymous pamphlet, shows the desperate character of the work in which the imported slanderer, or some one else was engaged.

On page 3, of the pamphlet, the year, the levy for county purposes, and the taxes collected are claimed to be given. As a sample, they state the taxes collected on the levy for 1893, at $474,852.34, when everyone knows that those taxes have not yet been collected, and that the people are now paying the last installment. As another instance of flagrant unfairness and misrepresentations, the total tax collected, state, county, township, school, ditch, gravel road and all other taxes, are stated as having been collected for county purposes. Take as a sample the year 1892. The statement in regard to that year, is as follows:

Date.	Levy	Tax Collected
1892	$0 34	$452,846.32

This clearly reads, and was intended to read that for the year 1892, $452,846 32, was collected for county purposes on a county levy of thirty four cents on each $100 of the taxable property of the county. The total taxable property of the county, was about the same as now, $41,309,819. The levy for county purposes was thirty-four cents on each $100. Any school boy can make the calculation and know that the tax for county purposes could not have been over $140,453 38,

The books of the auditor's and treasurer's offices show just what the levy was for each year for county purposes. Just how much was collected for county purposes each year, is shown by the auditor's certificate as follows

Year	Levy for Co purposes.	Total am't coll for Co purposes	Amt coll as falsely charged by Rep
1885	75c.	$183,453.46	$338,348 57

1894	27c.	111,157 51

I, Andrew F. Glutting, auditor of Allen county, hereby certify that the above and foregoing states the levies and the exact amount collected for county purposes for the years named and that the estimates for the years 1893 and 1894 are correct

ANDREW G. GLUTTING,
Auditor of Allen County.

Oct. 29, 1894.

This anonymous pamphlet charges an excess of more than $200,000 collected for county purposes annually than the true amount. This, however, is a small matter to the anonymous falsifier

It is demonstrated by the foregoing statement that the amount of taxes collected for county purposes for the year 1891, collected in 1892, was $42,253 47 less than for the year 1894, collected in 1895. That the amount that will be collected for 1894 will be $71,312 95, less than was collected for 1894.

It is also conceded by all that the county debt of $200,000 about ten years ago, has been reduced $130,000, so that only $70,000 remained to be paid. There is now in the treasury for payment for part of this remaining debt, as it matures, $17,000 which reduces the actual debt to $53,000. Thus it appears that the amount taxed for county purposes is being reduced year by year, and the county debt rapidly paid. It will be remembered too, that Allen county is the largest county in the state, and by reason of the number and peculiar course of its rivers, requires more bridges than any county in the state. The following statement shows amount expended for bridges from 1885 to 1894.

Allen county, Indiana, bridge expense as shown by the auditor's June report for each year.

1885	$ 42,876 18
1886	35,563 41
1887	27,511 24
1888	31,416 04
1889	64,000 06
1890	74,966 06
1891	36,616 97
1892	42,957 21
1893	67,704 87
1894	39,873 91
Total	$463,485 95

We assume no risk in stating that the affairs of the county have been as economically administered as any county in the state.

The total compensation of the three commissioners, less livery hire, is given at $2850.14 per year or for each commissioner $950 04. In Marion county, where not so much work is required of the commissioners as here, each commissioner has a fixed salary of $1800.00. In this county, a part of the pay allowed to each commissioner is for inspecting bridges, and all of the livery hire is expended in this way. There is no more important work for the commissioner than this, and nothing that will save the county so much. The supreme court has decided that it is the duty of the commissioners to make a close inspection of all the bridges in the county, and that if that duty is neglected and any one is hurt by reason of a bridge being in any way out of repair, the county must pay the damages. Some of the counties in the state have been compelled to pay large damages because of a failure by the county board to properly inspect the bridges.

Would anyone expect the commissioners to walk over this, the largest county in the state, to inspect all its bridges?

Would republican commissioners walk over Allen's 710 square miles of territory, in the building of new and inspecting of old bridges? Can voters and tax-payers be deceived by such miserable stuff as is contained in this unsigned circular?

The cry that is now raised by republican heelers, is the same that they have indulged in each campaign, and will amount to no more than in other campaigns.

Each year the auditor has published his report showing in detail the management of the county affairs, and no word of objection or criticism is made by any one until the end of the campaign, and then it is only for the purpose of attracting attention from the corrupt and devilish campaign methods of republican managers.

COMMISSIONER STELLHORN.

It is also charged that one of the commissioners has been selling lumber to the county for repair of bridges. The following statement of W. H Goshorn, superintendent of bridges, fully disposes of that charge;

FORT WAYNE, Ind., Oct. 27, 1894
To the Voters of Allen County

An anonymous pamphlet has been widely circulated throughout the county, charging Commissioner Henry Stellhorn with selling his own lumber to the county. I wish to say that the lumber referred to was not purchased under contract by the county, but by me directly of William Boseker, by virtue of my office as bridge superintendent of Allen county. I wish to add further, that such lumber was bought for the reflooring of old bridges, near the mill then operated by Mr. Boseker, at the regular and market price, and for the reason that by the nearness of the mill to the bridges repaired, heavy expense for hauling was saved to the county.

Respectfully,
W. H. GOSHORN.

This anonymous circular closes with the following pitiful appeal:

"We ask the voters of Allen county to lift the curtain—put the treasury into the hands of a party that has no skeleton hidden in the vaults that he fears to have brought to the light of day."

What! Put the treasury into the hands of midnight assassins of private character! Men who have resorted to the dark lantern cipher methods and frantic appeals for money to carry Indiana in this campaign.

Democrats! Will you avenge this insult to your party and its candidates? Will you permit every democratic official in this county to be libeled?

The books have always been open. If any democratic official has done wrong why did not those republican managers bring him to account in a court of justice where the truth must prevail?

Put to rout these cowardly anonymous slanderers by your ballots.

JAMES M. BARRETT,
Chairman Allen County Democratic Central Committee.

Barrowcliff's Forgetfulness.

"I haven't seen Barrowcliff for quite a long time, Kilduff. What has become of him?"

"Hadn't you heard the news?"

"What news? Is he married?"

"No, not married. I mean the immense fortune that he went to England to claim."

"Hadn't heard a word about it. Tell me the whole story."

"About a year ago Barrowcliff heard that a very large fortune was awaiting him in England I think the figure named was somewhere about £200,000, and there were only three heirs to the estate. It was to be divided equally. So Barrowcliff went over after his money."

"What a lucky dog he is! I wonder when you and I will have a windfall like that"

"Ah, when indeed? Well, as I was saying, Barrowcliff went to England after his money. About a year ago it was, and he hasn't come back yet."

"I suppose he is so pleased with the country and his possessions that he is staying there. Well, I don't know that I can blame him very much. I think if I were to drop into a nice fortune like that I'd stay abroad for a year or two anyhow."

"No, that isn't it. Barrowcliff is not staying because he is so fond of the country."

"No?"

"No, he would much prefer to be back in the United States"

"Then why doesn't he come? What is there to prevent him?"

SPOTS LIKE RAW BEEF

Erysipelas and Scrofula All My Life. In Cloths For Weeks. Blisters Size of Peas. Burned Like Fire. No Rest or Sleep.

Tried Three Doctors. Did No Good. Got Cuticura. Immediate Help. Entire Cure in Three Months.

I have been troubled with Erysipelas and Scrofula all my life. Recently my limbs came out in red spots from the size of my hand down to the merest pimple. Some of them would fester a little, but mostly the red, and the large spots looked more like raw beef, and would raise up quite a little from the surface. There would be blisters come as large as peas in different places with the rest. It was all over my limbs from my feet to my body across my shoulders, and my arms, hands and wrist ball, to be done up in cloths for weeks, and they would itch and burn as though I was afire, and there was no sleep for me, and my limbs swelled a good deal. I tried three doctors, but did me no good. Finally a friend recommended CUTICURA REMEDIES, and my husband got them. I gave them a thorough trial, and they helped me right off in three months time I was all well. Now this was three years ago this spring. I have used six or seven boxes of CUTICURA, and have taken nearly a dozen bottles of the CUTICURA RESOLVENT, and the CUTICURA SOAP I use entirely, and there is no other like it for bath and toilet.

Directions.—Make drawings with black ink on heavy white paper, or card board. Do the work in outline. Elaborate shading will not print well. Space in papers will be four inches square. Draw to larger scale if you prefer, but have design square. The idea is most important. If that is good we can have it redrawn and still give you credit. Avoid poetry. Points.—Santa Claus is a pure, high-grade Soap—made for laundry and general household use—a favorite wherever known. Merits generous praise. Sold by all grocers, wholesale and retail.

THE SOUL AND SPIRIT.

D. W. CALDWELL.

Brief Sketch of the New Lake Shore President.

Affairs of the Rail and Shop as Viewed by the Reporter on His Daily Rounds.

The telegraphic columns of THE SENTINEL contained a notice of the election of D. W. Caldwell to the presidency of the Lake Shore Railroad company, yesterday afternoon, but owing to the lateness of the dispatch we were unable to publish much concerning the new president.

Mr. Caldwell is a native of Massachusetts. He was born there in 1830. He has seen long and honorable service with the railroads. His career began with the Pennsylvania road in 1852, when he accepted a clerkship with the company. A year afterward he entered the engineering department of the company, and continued there for three years. In 1855 he went to the Pittsburg and Connellsville road, having been appointed its general superintendent. In 1859 he became general superintendent of the Central Ohio road and filled that position until 1874, when he resigned to accept a similar position with the Columbus, Chicago and Indiana Central. In 1874 he became general manager of the road and combined with it the general managership of the Pittsburg, Cincinnati and St. Louis, the Little Miami, the Cincinnati and Muskingum Valley, the Jeffersonville, Madison and Indianapolis and the Vandalia roads. In 1881 he was promoted to the position of general manager of all the Pennsylvania lines west of Pittsburg. In 1882 he left the Pennsylvania and was elected vice president of the Nickel Plate. He was afterward appointed receiver, and on the reorganization of the corporation in 1887 he was elected president. That position he still holds. Mr. Caldwell's home is in Cleveland, Ohio. He is a bachelor, but is a liberal entertainer.

ROBBED A PASSENGER.

When the Lake Shore train from Chicago arrived in Toledo shortly after 4 o'clock yesterday morning J. W. Burton, the porter of the sleeping car, was arrested on the charge of grand larceny. Hal Tyler, one of the occupants of a berth, found that his vest, containing a gold watch and $130 in money, was missing. He reported the loss to the conductor of the train and later Burton was cornered in the car and searched. While the trainmen were making the investigation the vest and missing property dropped from Burton's person, who had it concealed under his overcoat. He was placed in charge of the trainmen and when they arrived in Toledo was turned over to the night detective at the union depot.

BRIEF MENTION.

Machinist Joseph Jordan, of the Bass works, is sick and off duty.

Fireman Telley, of the Nickel Plate, is off duty on account of sickness.

Master Mechanic W. W. Atterbury returned from Chicago this morning.

Fireman McNutt, of the Nickel Plate, is off duty on account of sickness.

Nickel Plate Fireman Wells has recovered from his recent illness and is working again.

Chief Clerk James Fry, of Master Mechanic Atterbury's office, has returned from Delphi.

Machinist Gustave Grosh, of the Wabash shops, resumed work this morning, after a few days' illness.

Samuel Chadwick, a moulder, and a brother of John and Joe Chadwick, has taken a position in the Bass works.

Fireman Goff has resigned his position on the Nickel Plate and returned to South Whitley, his former home.

J. L. Long, W. L. Stanley and F. Liggett, Nickel Plate brakeman, resumed work yesterday after a few days' absence.

The lines in the Central Traffic association have fixed upon November 12 to advance grain and provision rates east bound.

J. C. Peters & Co. have placed a new delivery wagon on the streets. The vehicle is one of the finest of its kind in the city.

Brakeman Weber, of the Pittsburg, is on the streets again, after an illness of nearly a year. He has not worked since last January.

Engineer Cooper, who had been on the sick list, reported for duty last night. He has a run on the west end of the Nickel Plate.

J. H. Hobrook, assistant shop clerk of the Pittsburg, has returned from Chicago, where business for the company called him a few days ago.

One of the children of Charles Knothe, foreman of one of the departments at the electric light works, is sick with symptoms of diphtheria.

Charles Limecooly last night resigned as car clerk at the Pittsburg freight office. He has not yet decided what he will engage in, though several positions are open to him.

The Baltimore and Lehigh railroad company has been reorganized, and W. F. Walworth elected its president. It is to be converted into a standard gauge road at once.

Contractor Fred Boester was awarded the contract to build the house at 202 West Wayne street, for Arthur Fitzsimon, manager of the Fleming Manufacturing company.

Pittsburg engine 44, Engineer James Misner at the throttle, broke down between Hobart and Wheeler, at an early hour this morning, delaying No. 6, the mail and express train, a half hour.

The Wabash will send out a special train from Peru at 9:30 tonight to accommodate the people who wish to return home at that hour after attending the clam bake. The train will stop at all stations between Peru and Fort Wayne.

A well informed Pennsylvania official says that as soon as the Pennsylvania company comes into full control of the Vandalia among the first improvement it makes will be the doubling of the track between St. Louis and Greenville, fifty-one miles.

Noah Crawford and John Patterson, of Sullivan, Ind., were here yesterday examining our electric lighting system with a view of purchasing machinery for a plant. They were the guests of Charles Munson, the Electric Light company's representative.

The business of southern lines is showing a satisfactory increase and as a result they are preparing to increase their stock of cars. Lines which are now advertising for bids on freight cars are the Queen and Crescent, the Plant system, the Florida Central and Peninsula, and the Georgia Central.

Frank P. Fowler, of the Pittsburg planing mill, dropped a heavy piece of timber on one of his feet this morning, mashing four of the toes very badly. Dr. George C. Stemen, the attending surgeon, says that amputation will not have to be reported to. Mr. Fowler boards at the Grand Central hotel.

The Panhandle shops at Columbus, Ohio, yesterday commenced the building of twenty new cabin cars to be equipped with air brakes and automatic couplers, and 100 platform cars. Eleven hundred men are now employed at these shops, and, as usual after the days begin to shorten, are working but nine hours.

An official of the Big Four says that the company will doubtless make some change in its track at Wabash, arranging it to avoid the necessity of heading in to reach the station and then backing out. In that case the shops, if rebuilt there, will be built south of the old canal bed and the station located two hundred feet east of its present site. Such a change has been contemplated for some time.

Eastbound shipments from Chicago, last week, amounted to 47,526 tons, against 46,594 for the preceding week, and 63,333 for the corresponding week of last year. Indications point to a much heavier traffic this week, particularly on lines running through this city. Both the Pittsburg and Nickel Plate did a much larger business Monday and Tuesday than they did the corresponding days of last week.

As the special train bearing George Gould, which struck and killed George W. Jones at Roann a week ago Sunday night, had stopped and backed up to the scene of the accident, Mr. Gould got off his car and entered the station. Approaching the agent he inquired all about the sad affair, asked many questions concerning Jones, and wished to know his financial circumstances, and whether he had a family. The probability is that upon his return to New York the afflicted family will hear from Mr. Gould in a substantial manner.

The Railroad Gazette, in its last issue, gives a list of accidents occurring on roads in the United States in September, which shows that there were 146 accidents, in which fifty persons were killed and 126 injured. Of those killed thirty were employes, five passengers and fifteen trespassers; of those injured, eighty-four were employes, thirty-two passengers, and ten trespassers. Among the unusual accidents noted was that on the Lake Erie and Western at Lafayette, and that at Columbus, Ohio. During the month there were two accidents which did considerable damage from the explosion of boilers of locomotives.

Richard B. Green, a former employe of the organ factory, is now working in the furniture factory of John Widdicomb, Grand Rapids, Mich. This is one of the largest factories in Grand Rapids and Mr. Green says that business is so rushing that the employes are working twelve to fifteen hours per day. Mr. Widdicomb has established a free lunch room in his factory where the employes are served with coffee and sandwiches at 6 o'clock, thus enabling them to work throughout the supper hour. This is a new feature in the running of factories and the proprietor says that it is to his interest to maintain it.

George Layman, ex-passenger conductor on the Nickel Plate, this morning received a telegram from Chicago stating that William Yager, his brother in-law, had been killed in that city and that the remains would be shipped here tomorrow. The deceased was a carpenter and had been living in Chicago about two years, moving there from Adams county. He was forty-four years old and leaves a wife and four daughters. The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at 1 o'clock from the Evangelical church, corner of Holman and Clinton streets.

Mr. Yugle was killed by being struck by a falling iron beam while working upon the new Fort Dearborn building at Clark and Monroe streets. He was working on the sidewalk under a 1,400-pound girder that was being hoisted. The tackle gave way and the beam struck and instantly killed the laborer.

TIMES ARE BETTER.

The Figures of the Township Trustees' Books Show It.

The Money Paid Out for the Poor is Much Less This Year Than It Was Last Year.

That times are better in this city than they were a year ago is shown clearly by the books of Township Trustee Brackenridge giving the amount of money paid out by him for the support of the poor. The comparisons are made between the months of June, July, August, September and October of last year and the same months of this year, and they show the following figures:

Amount paid for June, 1893, $571.79
Amount paid for June, 1894, $458.70.
Amount paid for July, 1893, $552.35.
Amount paid for July, 1894, $523.41.
Amount paid for August, 1893, $564.92
Amount paid for August, 1894, $490.65.
Amount paid for September, 1893, $586.38.
Amount paid for September, 1894, $512.56.
Amount paid for October, 1893, $556.20.
Amount paid for October, 1894, $450.00.

The total amount paid out for these five months last year was $2,831.74, and for the same months this year, $2,436.32, or $385.42 less this year than last. The record for the month of October, now that trade conditions are rapidly beginning to assume their old conditions and men securing employment, shows $106 less for the month this year than the one of last year, or a reduction of 20 per cent.

As the township at all times is compelled to pay out a large amount for the support of the poor, the above figures prove that times are rapidly improving, notwithstanding the cry of calamity howlers.

"Sights and Scenes in California,"

Is the name of one of the recent publications issued by the Passenger Department of the Union Pacific System.

It deals minutely with every resort of health or pleasure within its assigned limits, and will be found bright and interesting reading. It is doubly interesting to those who desire to escape the rigorous winter which will soon be upon us. For a copy of this interesting pamphlet, address E. L. Lomax, General Passenger and Ticket Agent, Omaha, Neb., and remember that the Union Pacific offers superior service to the California tourist, Pullman Palace Sleepers and Dining Cars, Chicago to San Francisco, and Pullman Colonist Sleepers from the Missouri River to San Francisco.

Better Every Year.

Time was when the "glorious climate of California" did not attract tourists. But year after year the tide of travel sets in stronger and stronger every fall and winter toward this favored region. There is no climate like it on this continent for a winter resort, and the usual fine service on the Union Pacific system has this season been brought to a degree of perfection which leaves nothing to be desired.

STORY OF THE STARS.

ELEANOR KIRK GIVES HER VIEWS ON ASTROLOGY.

Revival of the Belief In the Influence of the Zodiac—A Well Known Writer Who Claims That the Time of Birth Predetermines Success or Failure In Life.

(Special Correspondence.)

BROOKLYN, Oct. 25.—Some people believe everything that is told them, and more people believe nothing. The first state is more desirable than the last because there is nothing so destructive to happiness and usefulness as a chronic negative condition. Then there is an intermediate class, which accepts the results of the five external senses and rejects everything which cannot be accurately weighed and measured. These are the most difficult people to help or convince. They snap their fingers and shrug their shoulders at every proposition which does not rest on a solid material foundation. The credulous man listens and nods assent to all the wonderful stories of astronomers and astrologers. The incredulous man admits perhaps that these fellows who study their time fooling about among the stars may have found out something, but too little to make any practical use of. They accept the telegraph and the telephone and all the other marvels of science as matters of course, admitting by so doing that everything tangible has an intangible foundation and everything that we see is dependent upon what we do not see.

Four Elementary Principles.

When we come to the constellations of the zodiac and their influence upon human life, we are met at once with a great distrust and a great interest. Even the most unbelieving are compelled to accept, after comparing the characteristics of their signs with their own talents, virtues and failings, that there is a remarkable agreement, and if they are intellectually honest they will not attribute it to coincidence or "happen-chance."

It certainly cannot be difficult even for the unimaginative reader to picture a nature made up of fire and water. Indeed it is most likely that the thought of all who peruse these lines will immediately turn to certain friends or acquaintances who will so entirely fill the bill in these respects that they will exclaim, "Oh, I am sure so and so must have been born on the fire and water cusp, for nothing else will explain the heat and the cold, the hiss, steam and splutter of this strange life!" If our friends will pursue this most fascinating and instructive study still further, they will find everything to delight and nothing to repel them.

Signs of the Zodiac.

The zodiac is a belt extending around the sidereal heavens, composed of 12 constellations or signs. More strictly speaking, they may be called 12 spaces, into which the sun enters at regular intervals during the 365 days, comprising one year. These signs are called aries, the ram; taurus, the bull; capricornus, the unicorn; gemini, the twins; cancer, the crab; leo, the lion; virgo, the virgin; libra, the scales; scorpio, the scorpion; sagittarius, the archer; aquarius, the water bearer, and pisces, the fishes. These 12 signs are divided into what are called triplicities—the fire triplicity, the air triplicity, the earth and water triplicities. Aries, leo and sagittarius belong to the fire domain; gemini, libra and aquarius to the air; taurus, virgo and capricorn to the earth, and cancer, scorpio and pisces to the watery domain.

It is well for the student on the science of this zodiac to first compare the characteristics of those he knows best and is especially interested in with the nature of the elements he belongs to. As has been previously stated, aries, leo and sagittarius compose the domain of fire. The sun enters aries March 20 and leaves it April 19. The sun enters leo July 22 and leaves that constellation Aug. 22. He enters sagittarius Nov. 23 and departs Dec. 21. Those born under either of these signs are children of the fire and are as different from those who came under air, earth or water as these elements are different from each other.

As leo is the only sign of the zodiac governed by the sun, the traits of character of leo people are more marked than those of others in this domain. If these people have not been properly trained in childhood and youth, they are apt to grow up exceedingly sensitive, emotional and suspicious. Among these undeveloped leo people we find natural prevaricators and liars and chronic borrowers. They ask favors and never expect or desire to return them. Such leo people take quick prejudices which nothing can eradicate. Consider the qualities of the untamed lion and apply them to the undeveloped leo individual, and we shall find that as some lions of the forest differ in their ferocity so do leo persons differ.

Traits of Leo People.

The lion man, when master of himself, is a splendid fellow. He is king and can do anything he chooses with himself or others. He is powerfully magnetic, generous and sympathetic. Leo people are usually excellent conversationists and are very bright and witty. They are said to radiate a luminous substance which endows them with an attraction similar to the solar influence which dominates them. This quality or force gives them a remarkable ability in molding public opinion and swaying great audiences. When this power is used for evil, as it often is by the unawakened leo person, its terrible effects can scarcely be exaggerated. Aries is the positive pole of the fire triplicity, and sagittarius the negative pole. Leo is the middle pole, and while he has his own positive and negative poles he acts upon and in turn is acted upon by these two constellations to his own domain.

Leo was especially selected for this paper in order to give the reader a strong and definite starting point. One zodiacal sign is quite as interesting as another. We select 12 interesting persons differing in their characteristics. Compare, for instance, the zodiacal sign the goat, the ram with the lion and virgin with the archer, and so on through the constellations, even in an outward and superficial way, the close student can readily see how and wide are the contrasts. But there is a deeper and more wonderful significance to all of these starry symbols. The creature comes to be the creature of sacrifice, the lamb that is willing to give itself for the sins of the world, and so on from the positive sign of the fire triplicity to the last and negative sign of the water triplicity. The stars, like those they influence, all have their stories, and the similarity or agreement of individual history with the stories of the domain to which he belongs and the sign of the zodiac under which he is born is usually very wonderful to the new student.

A Speculator's Horoscope.

One man who had been engaged in a Wall street speculation and who had helped to wreck a great many honest and innocent people was not so hardened that he could not faint dead away upon hearing the characteristics of his sign described by an astrologer to whom he had gone to consult for fortunate days, etc. This man had simply given the month and day of his birth to the person selected for a business guide, and the result was a reading so true in every particular that it first shocked and then stunned him.

"Nobody can tell how I suffered," he told a friend afterward. "I had found myself a lucky speculator and gave myself to the work heart and soul. I reasoned that my gift was talent to use, and I deserved only commendation in being smarter than others. I would look out for myself, and the devil might take the hindmost. But that old man turned me inside out, and when I left that office the world seemed to me like one great hell and I the head devil." The most beautiful, the most fascinating of all the most instructive and inspiring of all the stories that are being told daily in the world today. It leads us literally "through nature"—human nature as well as external nature—"up to nature's God." By its means we are enabled to know ourselves and our neighbors and to overcome what once seemed the impossible. The best story that teaches the stars tell us is how to resist and perfectly dominate the influence of the stars.

A Matter of Economy.

A lady from the tamarack swamps was buying in some parlor furniture during his valuable advice the store was offering.

"No," she said, in rebuttal; "I don't want no chairs."

"No chairs, madam," he exclaimed. "I never heard of a parlor without chairs."

"Well, you come to my house some time, and you will see one," she retorted.

"What will you have instead?"

"Sofies, young man, sofies, these little two seat ones, and taytaytays and things like that."

The clerk's equanimity was receiving a powerful jostle.

"What in the mischief do you want to do that for?" he asked in a helpless sort of way.

"You ain't a married man, are you?" she snapped. "You never raised a family of girls, did you?"

"Hardly."

"Well, you don't know anything about it. I've raised five. Three's married, and the other two's got beaux. I've always had chairs, and every time when the courtin was over with them girls and they got married I had to get new ones. Three sets of parlor chairs in three winters is goin it most too strong. They git broke down somehow, and now I'm goin to put a stop to it by havin sofies, and you needn't be tryin to change my mind. I know what I want, and if you haven't got sofies say so, and I'll run go where they do have them."

The argument was convincing, and the clerk lifted the thrifty lady out with a half dozen warranted to carry two with safety and economy.—Detroit Free Press.

I Wonder Why

So many women will continue to suffer when help is so near.

It is queer. They avoid society and are reluctant to make the least effort.

Further investigation discloses irregularity of periods, dizziness, faintness, accompanied by a crushing sense of bearing down and perhaps leucorrhœa. Yet they would like to be well.

Oh! why don't they believe:—

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the most marvelous cure for all this trouble. Thousands of American women are living testimonials of this great truth.

A purely vegetable remedy.

The latest investigations by the United States and Canadian Governments show the Royal Baking Powder superior to all others in purity and leavening strength.

Statements by other manufacturers to the contrary have been declared by the official authorities falsifications of the official reports.

WERE FORCED TO PLAY.

The Baltimores Knew They Were Not in Championship Form.

There were many persons who predicted when the Baltimores decided to play the cup games that Hanlon's ex-players wouldn't score a single victory. This prediction has come true, and to those who were on the inside it was not a difficult prediction to make.

In the first place the Baltimore men never wanted to play for the trophy at all. From the start they could see in it nothing advantageous to the national game. The league season was over, and to play this series meant that the champions might be defeated and that the prize for which all of the clubs had been battling for six months might in less than a week be placed in a secondary light.

When the difficulty arose about the division of the receipts the Baltimore players were even more strongly convinced that they ought not play the series, and accordingly, the championship being settled and there being nothing further to play for, the men let up in their work. The same rules of personal conduct off the field were not observed. The boys took things easy in the remaining games and did not put their accustomed ginger into their work.

Red Seal BOILER Compound

FOR THE

Removal and Prevention of Scale in Steam Boilers,

The attention of engineers and owners of steam boilers is called to the RED SEAL BOILER COMPOUND. It will successfully remove the scale from steam boilers, and also prevent the formation of scale. It is well known that the scale is a powerful non-conductor, and that the waste of fuel is in proportion to the thickness of the scale which becomes attached to the shell, flues, tubes and other parts of the boilers, causing a loss of fuel ranging from one to thirty-seven per cent.

The Red Seal Boiler Compound is entirely free from acids, and does not injure or corrode the iron. In its action it does not vaporize or pass off with the steam. It can be used with perfect safety by Breweries, Dye Houses, Hotels, Refineries, Laundries, and many other establishments too numerous to mention, where pure live steam is required.

It will prevent incrustation and the forming of new scale, without injury to the boiler. The mineral impurities are gradually softened and dissolved, and are then held in suspension until such time as the boiler is blown out under pressure, or washed out when cold.

The compound is in powder form, dissolves easily in warm water, and, as a liquid, can be applied to the boiler through the pump or injector, or in any other convenient way.

All we ask is a trial of RED SEAL BOILER COMPOUND, and we will convince the most skeptical that it is a superior article to many of the so-called boiler compounds on the market.

Directions and price list cheerfully furnished on application.

Yesterday morning Tom Brickley owner of a stock farm west of Bluffton and his colored hostler noticed a large eagle rise from the race track and fly into the woods They pursued it and two shots brought down the bird, a magnificent specimen three feet tall and measured seven feet three, from tip to tip Just why people are so desirous of killing off eagles is one of the mysteries which is yet to be explained Although adopted as the emblem of this great land and honored in song and story yet the bird is rapidly becoming extinct The eagle is not good for food and does but little harm Therefore, why should it be shot?

IMPS OF HALLOWE'EN.

They Will Hold Their Carnival Tonight.

Many Society Gatherings Planned to Celebrate This Occasion—Peep Into the Future.

A little nonsense now and then
Is relished by the best of men

Tonight is Hallowe'en—Nutcrack night' in ancestral vernacular the night of bobbin' apples and for ogling sweethearts and for setting nuts to roast in pairs to coax hymeneal secrets from the future It is also night for tying cabbages on doorknobs unhinging gates setting 'knicker knockers going on the window panes of staid and solemn residence and playing all manner of pranks against the peace and dignity of the people who have grown too old to recall lovers names in apple parings

On this night there generally is enough nonsense which or ing morning with gaping the following empty gate ways overturned noiseblocks and ridiculously misplaced signs, excites a spirit of wrath in those not at all in touch with the heathen notions of Hallowe'en

But Hallowe'en after all in these modern days the special time of fun and frolic Not to speak of the rude sports with which boisterous youths celebrate the evening there is a flavor of romance of ing about it that richly endears it to all who have a passion for prying into the future especially when a sweetheart or a lover is the object of the prophetic quest In the folk lore of the Saxon races the possibilities of Hallowe'en are ever prominent and some of the recipes for discovering one's own true love though ancient as the hills are not without interest to the swains and sweethearts of today, and they will be the most interesting features of the many entertainments planned for this evening

Tariff has been a bad year for the United States fish commission, owing to the heat and drought of the summer Lots of fish however, it has planted in the streams and in the interest of this country more than 100 000 000 young fish Of these 100 000 000 were shad and another 100 000 000 were white fish The interest in the question as well as the excellent results of last year's work is noted in the orders in the post for June It is to be hoped that the next session will become such that the shad season will not be a fiction to the poor as to the well to do The delicate whitefish of the north in lakes is not however, increasing in numbers in spite of the pains taken by the fish commission to stock the waters which are its haunts Two whitefish supplies the whole vast interior of the country with its best water food The demand is increasing rapidly, and the facilities for catching whitefish have increased in proportion Redoubled exertions will be necessary on the part of both state and national fish culturists to keep up the supply of whitefish

STATE OF INDIANA ALLEN COUNTY SS

Daniel W Souder vs Charles E Everett Emmett V Harris Nathan R Leonard } In the Circuit Court September Term 1894

ANSWER OF JUSTIFICATION

Comes now Charles E Everett Emmett V Harris and Nathan R Leonard defendants in the above entitled action in their own proper persons and by their attorneys and in order to the better and more complete maintainance of their rights therein hereby expressly waive all delay and at once enter their appearances without waiting for the return day of the summons herein for answer to the plaintiff's complaint and to each paragraph thereof the defendants say that the defendant Charles E Everett is engaged in business as a real estate loan and insurance broker at the city of Fort Wayne in said Allen county Indiana and is the acting and qualified chairman of the county central committee of one of the great political organizations in said county a committee organized for the purpose of managing and conducting the pending political campaign and canvass of the qualified voters of said county And the defendant Nathan R Leonard is proprietor and editor of the Fort Wayne Daily and Weekly Gazette a daily and weekly political newspaper published printed and circulated in said county and state And the defendant Emmett V Harris, is a competent lawyer practicing his profession in said city and a member of the bar of said county in good repute and standing That each of said defendants are and have been for more than two months last past engaged in carrying on and conducting a canvass of the voters of said county in behalf of one of said principal political parties therein and for that purpose have been performing such political duties as members of said committee and as citizens of said county and state as would fairly and honestly submit to the voters of said county the issues in said campaign

That the defendant Charles E Everett for the purpose of informing himself and the voters of said county as to the conduct and management of the clerk's office in said county by plaintiff employed the defendant Emmett V Harris to make an investigation and examination of the public records in said office containing the accounts of costs and fees taxed and charged by the plaintiff and by Harry M Metzger, who is his principal deputy and has charge of the business of taxing the fees and costs in the office of said plaintiff and had such charge at the time of the taxing of the fees and costs in plaintiff's complaint referred to and who is now and was at the time of the making of the several publications complained of seeking the suffrages of the people of said county as a candidate or election to succeed said plaintiff in the said office of clerk of the Allen circuit court to the persons having business with said clerk and in the courts of said county And said Everett instructed the said Harris to make as complete an examination as time and opportunity would permit and to make an impartial investigation of the facts and report them to him as chairman of said committee and to his co defendant Nathan R Leonard for the purpose of publishing the same in the said daily paper and to be otherwise submitted to the voters of said county That said defendant Harris proceeded under said employment to make an examination and reported the facts set forth in the several paragraphs of said complaint, showing the taxation and collection by said plaintiff of the illegal fees set forth and described in said paragraphs of the complaint That the defendants Everett and Leonard believing that said examination had been honestly, impartially and faithfully made by their co defendant, Harris, and believing that the facts with reference to the charging taxing and collecting of the illegal, exorbitant and extortionate fees by said Daniel W Souder were true and relying upon the accuracy of said investigation, did cause to be made out a statement showing the amount of fees charged in each case, and the volume and page of the fee book kept in said clerk's office in which said charges were entered the amount of legal fees to which said clerk was entitled and the amount of overcharges extorted from the parties having business in said office and the names of persons against whom said charges were made and caused the same to be published and circulated among the people of said county for the sole purpose of informing the voters, at the ensuing election for county officers of such matters as affect and concern their highest interests as citizens and of enabling them the better to exercise understandingly the sacred right of the ballot and without any malicious intent to defame the name of said plaintiff as in said complaint alleged and without any malicious intent whatever And the defendants further aver that all the statements of facts set forth in said several publications described in the several paragraphs of said complaint are true, and this the defendants are ready to verify

Wherefore they pray judgment in their favor and for costs

THE CZAR'S CONDITION.

Somewhat Improved Though Still Very Critical.

A Complete Account of the Illness of the Monarch From the Day of the First Symptoms.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 31 — An official bulletin issued at 10 o'clock this morning says that the czar slept for a few hours last night and that the bleeding had somewhat subsided. Otherwise the condition of the patient is not changed. The bulletin is signed, as usual, by the physicians who are in attendance upon his majesty.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 31.—The Official Messenger, publishes the following account of the czar's illness. "The dispiriting symptoms which manifested themselves at Spala became less marked in the early days of his majesty's sojourn at Livadia. The czar was able to attend divine service after arriving there and he was also able to drive about. These symptoms of weakness appeared with failing appetite, loss of sleep, weakening of the heart's action, increase of albumen and swelling of the extremities. On October 19 there was a return of the czar's appetite and on October 20 he was able to obtain the rest in sleep which produced a notable increase in his strength, and a reduction of the albumen. The same day the queen of Greece arrived and the protoceraskister, Father Iran of Cronstadt, who offered up prayers for the emperor, also reached Livadia. His majesty then received holy communion, which assisted in tranquilizing his mind. On October 22 the emperor prayed with Father Iran. Princess Alix of Hesse-Darmstadt, arrived that evening and by order of the czar she was received ceremoniously with a guard of honor and with the military band playing. The meeting of the czar with Princess Alix, whom he had long been craving to see, strongly excited the patient in spite of the joy which the meeting caused him. At this the majesty's physicians feared the effects of this excitement, but the night passed favorably. There was continued oedema of the feet on October 25 which hindered free movement. During all the time the czar in spite of his sufferings did not neglect state business, but at the urgent instances of his physicians he handed over documents relating to current affairs and reports requiring considerable examination to the czarewitch. His majesty, however, decided the most important cases and signed the state papers. It is semi-officially announced today that all reports regarding the immediate marriage of the czarewitch to Princess Alix are unfounded. It is added that it was never proposed since the illness of the czar that the marriage should take place hurriedly.

FRIGHTFUL WRECK.

An Express Dashes Into a Coal Train.

Our Engineer and Two Firemen Killed and the Passengers Severely Shaken Up.

SCRANTON, Pa, Oct 31—Express train No 7, on the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad, northbound running at the rate of forty miles an hour, dashed into a freight train standing on an open switch at Conklin, twenty-seven miles north of here, at 1 o'clock this morning. Three persons were killed and a large number injured. The train was a through one from New York at 7.30 p m, and due in Buffalo at 7 10 this morning.

The accident was the result of the express train plunging into a coal train engine which was backing down the southbound track, and which by reason of the open switch passed onto the northbound track just as the flying express train came along. The coal train crew consisted of Engineer James Lycott, of this city, and Fireman Elmer C. Scull, of Moscow. The former was instantly killed and Scull died at the Moses Taylor hospital here of his injuries. The express train engineer was Valentine Butler, of Binghampton, and his fireman was Wm. C. Hosey, of the same city. Hosey was also instantly killed, but Butler crawled out from beneath the wreck of the two engines with scarcely a bruise, escaping the scalding steam which patrolled the other victims. There were no serious injuries to passengers, they only suffering from a shaking up, when the engines came together.

Aid has been summoned from Portsmouth, N H, Haverhill, Salem and several places near by. At 11.30 the fire was believed to be under control.

WEDDED.

In the Handsome Residence of Secretary Carlisle.

The Marriage of Miss Thompson, of Kentucky, to Mr. Leonard Davis, of Colorado.

WASHINGTON, Oct 31—Secretary Carlisle's handsome residence on "K" street was the scene today of the most brilliant society event of the fall season — the marriage of Miss Mattie Thompson, of Kentucky, and Mr. William Leonard Davis, of Colorado. Miss Thompson is the daughter of Col Philip B Thompson, a prominent Kentuckian, and ex member of congress, and Mr Davis was for several years vice president of the New York World Publishing company, and has extensive mining interests in Colorado to which he devotes his time

The ceremony took place at noon under gas light in the large drawing room, the walls of which were almost concealed under draperies of smilax, plumes and wild laurel roses, twined with white roses and orchids. From the ceiling was suspended a chime of wedding bells under which the wedding party stood during the ceremony. The second parlor was decorated with American beauty roses—a back ground against which the scarlet uniforms of the musicians of the Marine band made a brilliant show. The dining room beyond all had decorations of smilax and American beauty roses.

The wedding march, from Lohengrin, was rendered by the Marine band while the bride entered on the arm of her father The service was that of the Episcopal church, read by Rev. Dr. Mackay Smith, the rector of St John's. There were no bridesmaids nor ushers, only members of the two families and the most intimate friends, including Secretary Carlisle's family, were present at the ceremony.

The bride, who is a handsome brunet, wore a gown of heavy white satin by Worth, of Paris, trimmed with antique Venetian point, a train vail, with a corset of orange blossoms and two rich diamond crescents, the gift of the groom. Her trousseau was an extensive one. The traveling dress is of dark green crepon, with applique of old Russian lace, and a wrap of short clipped Persian lamb. Mrs Carlisle wore a Worth gown of mauve and gray satin, elaborately trimmed in cream chiffon and lace. Mrs Joseph Pulitzer, sister of the groom, wore a handsome Worth gown of purple velvet. There were numerous and costly gifts.

After a reception from 12 30 to 3 o'clock the couple took an afternoon train for New York, whence they will go to Colorado Springs for the winter. In the spring they contemplate a long trip abroad.

Officials and resident society was largely represented at the reception Conspicuous among the guests were: Mrs. President Cleveland, Secretary and Mrs. Gresham, Secretary and Mrs. Hoke Smith; Postmaster General and Mrs. Bissell; Attorney General and Mrs. Olney; Secretary and Mrs Herbert; Secretary and Miss Morton; Assistant Secretary Hamlin, of the treasury; Mrs. Jefferson Davis; Miss Winnie Davis, Mrs General Hazen, Mrs Rugher, Mr and Mrs. John McLean, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Tiscon, of Baltimore, and Mr and Mrs. Delancey Nicoll, of New York.

POPULISTS CAUSE A TANGLE.

Object to the Declaration of Independence on the Official Ballot.

CANTON, Ohio, Oct 31—The political situation in Mercer county is mixed. A few days ago F. M. Dick, a member of the straight populist party, who had been nominated for commissioner by that party at the Bedford convention, filed a petition in common pleas court of Mercer county for himself and others praying the court to enjoin the fusion branch of the people's party from placing the names of candidates selected by the conference committee of the independent democrats, populists and republicans on the official ballot under the emblem of the people's party, and to enjoin the independent democrats from placing the same names on the official ballot under the title of independent democrats. The case was heard by Judge Hickie at Celina Monday, during which it was developed that the 300 names necessary to the petition for an independent ticket on the ballots had not been legally certified to. The case went to the supreme court.

NHILISTS' CIRCULAR.

Rejoicing Over the Approaching Death of the Czar.

Says He Has Been a Disgrace to Russia and Has Not Long Ruled the Nation.

LONDON, Oct 31 —A circular showing a blood red bomb, revolver and dagger, emanating from the refugee nihilists in Switzerland is circulating there and in London It says:

"The tyrant, Alexander, autocrat czar, hangman and assassin of Michaeloff, Russikoff, Khalikulik Nekrasoff-Sophia Perovskaia, Jessie Hallmann and many others, purveyor of the Siberian gallows, persecutor of the Jews, is on the point of expiating his crimes. He is dying of a mysterious illness, a well merited punishment. Vegul science, his Zacharins, Hirchs and Popoffs, can do nothing to prolong a life which has been devoted to violence and oppression. At length the monster is going to disappear. Hurrah! The day has passed when a man ought to be allowed by right of birth to dispose of the liberty and lives of a hundred million of other men. Let his son, the czarewitch, as well as his ambitious rivals, the Grand Dukes Valadimir and Michael who are ready to assassinate in accordance with the traditions of the Romanoff family to get possession of the bloody heritage. Let all understand that every hour and at every step they will find themselves face to face with the inflexible will of the revolutionists. Let us leave to the hypocritical liberals the task of covering with flowers the horrible corpse of the scoundrel, who in leaving this world after having too long dishonored it Solong as the Russian slaves do not possess the land so long as an infernal autocracy, served by a rapacious and shameless feudality, makes Russia a disgrace to the civilized world, we shall always applaud any blow at dynasty or genocide it. Long live liberty and the revolution."

CRIMINAL LIBEL.

Mayor Hopkins Seeks Redress for Alleged Wrongs.

He Charges Republican State Chairman Tanner, With Circulating Libelous Literature.

CHICAGO, Oct 31—Mayor Hopkins today went before the grand jury for the purpose of securing an indictment against Chairman John R Tanner, of the republican central committee. The mayor charges that Tanner circulated campaign literature containing charges that the former had levied blackmail on the vices of the city. Mayor Hopkins declared today that he will relentlessly prosecute the republican leader for criminal libel, and said he had no doubt that the grand jury would return an indictment. Chairman Tanner, in anticipation of arrest, remained at republican headquarters with a body of bondsmen and attorneys, ready to resist any attempt to send him to jail.

After the mayor had laid his evidence before the grand jury, a hot session followed, resulting in the refusal of the jury to take any action in the matter. Mayor Hopkins then went before a justice of the peace to swear out a warrant for Tanner's arrest.

ATTEMPTED WRECKING.

Illinois Obstruct a Railway Track to Ditch a Train.

BOSTON, N. Y., Oct 31 — An attempt was made to wreck the Boston and Chicago special on the Lake Shore rail way last night, near Lake View, ten miles west of Buffalo, by placing a plank and stones on the track just west of a siding. Fortunately, the obstructions were discovered, and the train was stopped in time. Superintendent Niles does not credit the theory of train robbers An investigation is now in progress.

Fifteen Insane People Burned.

A HORRIBLE CRIME.

A Train Wrecker Confesses to the Deed.

Says He Intended to Rob the Express Car and Beat Passengers and Trainmen.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Oct. 31—Wholesale murder and express robbery was the motive that inspired the recent train wrecking on the "Scoop" road. Two men, charged with the murder of the man who lost his life by their work, were given a preliminary hearing here today and were held to trial. One of the prisoners has confessed and his story details the methods pursued to derail the through Minneapolis-Boston limited near Holland junction on the night of October 7. In the crash Fireman Charles Cottrell was instantly killed and Engineer James Dutch was seriously injured. The plan was to cause a wreck that would kill every person on the train and then rob the safe in the express car, as it was supposed the safe contained a large sum of money.

The man who confessed is Levitt Haveldon, about twenty years old, claiming to be a resident of Brainerd, Minn. His companion is Frank Williams, a short, thick-set man, who claims to have relatives and friends at Appleton, Wis. Williams stoutly maintains that he knows nothing of the wrecking. The officer traced these men from Minneapolis to this city. On September 30 they broke into and stole an old coat and overcoat in the tool house at Prentice. That night they sawed a bridge near this place, but owing to the short time in which they had to do the work it was not complete and the train passed safely over it. The following week's time was spent between Prentice and Rhinelander. On October 7 they sawed the piles and stringers of the high bridge near Hoaford Junction and the westbound passenger train went crashing down a twenty five foot embankment.

The train was running slow, so the wreck was not as complete as the wreckers expected The baggage, smoking and dry coaches and two sleepers were not broken and none of the passengers were hurt On October 11 Sheriff Payner received a message from the station at Irma to look out for two suspicious looking characters That night the sheriff, accompanied by others, stationed himself about a mile from the city, near Lake View, and about 10 o'clock two men appeared They were taken into custody and were found to be heavily armed.

The officials were notified and de tectives put on their case The men were sentenced for thirty days for carrying concealed weapons last Wednesday they were taken before Circuit Commissioner Hohns, charged with the murder of Fireman Chas. Cotterill. They plead not guilty and their examination was set for today. Last Thursday Levitt Haveldon signified his desire to confess. His statement was taken before Ed Kinsky, notary public, in the presence of Sheriff Paiver, District Attorney Anderson and F. N. Hole.

FALSE REPORTS

Circulated About Harry Metzger, the Democratic Candidate for Clerk.

As everybody knows, Harry Metzger is the democratic nominee for clerk of the court, and, as everybody knows, he is a young man who has worked his way to position in the ranks of his party and in the estimation of the general public, by individual efforts, recognized merit and honorable conduct.

His personal character and qualifications being unassailable, the republican managers have seen fit to connect and diligently circulate falsehoods, with the purpose of injuring him, and especially with his Catholic and Lutheran friends. They first made a diligent effort to circulate the report in Catholic districts that he was an A. P. A., and in Lutheran districts that he was a Catholic. It was not intended that Mr. Metzger should hear of these reports. They, however, came to his knowledge, and it took but a short time to put an effectual quietus upon these ridiculous stories

Defeated in their first unfair and dishonorable schemes, they have now started another report equally as false and malicious It is in substance, that he was at the jail when an insane patient requested that a priest should visit him, that Mr Metzger left the jail and went to Mr William A Evans, got him to shave his mustache, took him to jail, introduced him to the patient as a Catholic priest, and aided Mr Evans in rescuing from him a couples fees.

There is not a semblance of truth in this whole story, except that he and Mr. W. A Evans were at the jail when Dr Greenawalt examined the patient, as a physician, to determine whether or not he should be taken to the asylum As a complete refutation of the whole story, in addition to Mr Metzger's statement, letters from Mr Evans and Dr Greenawalt are herein serted, which are as follows:

FORT WAYNE, Ind., Oct 29, 1894

H M. METZGER

DEAR SIR:—I have heard the reports to the effect that I visited the jail with you and that that you there introduced me to an insane patient in the hospital department as a Catholic priest. I wish here to state that the statements are false in every particular and that nothing of the kind occurred I was never at the jail with you but once.

Yours truly, WM. A. EVANS

FORT WAYNE, Ind., Oct 31, '94

151 East Wayne Street

MR. H. METZGER

DEAR SIR:—The report to effect that I visited the jail in company with you and Mr Wm A Evans, and that you then and there introduced Mr Evans to an insane patient as a Catholic priest, in order to secure a confession, has been reported to me Have no desire, in denouncing such report false Neither into fraction nor misrepresentation of this kind occurred.

Very Truly Yours,
G. L. GREENAWALT.

R Leonard and Attorney Burris, for $10,000 damage s for publishing a libel concerning the plaintiff, was called up in the circuit court this morning before Judge O'Rourke The plaintiff's attorneys, W. H. Shumbaugh and W. P. Breen made a motion asking that the court order an immediate examination of the defendants as to the truth of the charges made by them in the publication against the plaintiff. After some argument, the defendants expressed their willingness for the immediate examination. The law allows the defendants five days' notice prior to the beginning of such examination, and Attorney Breen inquired whether the defendants were willing to waive that notice and proceed with the examination to-morrow Judge Lowry answered for defendants that they were ready for trial forthwith, today, either before the court or a jury. The court therefore, ordered that the preliminary examination of the defendants should take place tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock in the office of Mr. Shumbaugh

At noon a farmer reported at police headquarters that about 11 o'clock someone stole his sorrel horse and buckboard from in front of the Fort Wayne club. Consumption Cuts Short the Career of James Roche—Other Deaths in the City.

The announcement of the death of Frederick G. Lepper, which occurred this morning at 10 o'clock at his home, 42 Hanna avenue, will come in the nature of a sad surprise to his large circle of friends and acquaintances, who, although they knew he was sick, did not realize that he was so near to death's door. He was taken ill about three weeks ago with typhoid fever and every since then has been confined to his bed and under the constant care of physicians or nurses It was thought yesterday that he was somewhat improved, but during the night his condition changed for the worse and he rapidly sank until death came

He was born in Adams township, in this county, on December 24, 1866, and was nearly twenty-eight years of age. His parents moved to this city when he was a boy and here he has resided ever since. Some nine years ago he went to work at Wagner's drug store and after remaining there three years, left to clerk for his brother, E. O Lepper, the druggist at 66 West Jefferson street, but left there about three weeks ago to clerk for Waltemath & Co., the grocers, in whose employ he was at the time of his death.

Mr. Lepper was married about a year ago to Miss Emma Merriles, and also, with one child, survives him He was a member of Phoenix lodge, Knights of Pythias, and that organization will have charge of his funeral. Roland Willetts Rids Good Bye to His Old Home.

WABASH, Ind., Oct 31—Roland Willetts, of Andrews, who shot and, it is supposed, fatally wounded Oliver Kutcher, a Wabash engineer, at Lagro, Thursday night, together with his wife, left Andrews yesterday morning, going west on the Wabash railroad. Their destination is unknown, but as they passed through here Mrs. Willetts kept as much out of sight from the platform as possible The people at Andrews deny that Kutcher, the wounded man, is in that place, and say that they have reason to believe he is in Wabash. The whole affair remains as much a mystery as ever and not a doctor can be found in Wabash, Lagro or Andrews who will admit that he knows a thing about the case. It is thought here that Willetts and his wife will remain away until Kutcher either recovers or dies, and in the latter case they may not appear at all.

REPLY TO CHARGES.

The Democratic Committee Reviews the Campaign Issues.

Refutation of the Charges Made Against the Present Court House Officials.

TO THE VOTERS OF ALLEN COUNTY:

The republicans have published and circulated an anonymous document entitled the "Court House Ring." The substance of this document has been published both in the Gazette and News, the republican county organs. It contains a rehash of the falsehoods and slanders which have been indulged in by republicans in their campaigns in this county for many years past. In each succeeding election, the people of the county have put their seal of condemnation upon these methods by increasing the democratic majority, and it is firmly believed that at the coming election the people will again condemn it by another increase of the democratic majority. Any ticket that the democratic party may nominate is invariably styled by the republican managers, "A Court House Ring." It makes no difference to these republican managers that the ticket contains farmers from Pleasant, Springfield, Wayne, Washington and Monroe townships, none of whom have ever been in office in or about the court house. They are still on their farms, and will be until by the election they are called to the discharge of their official duties.

On the day after the county convention the Fort Wayne News, which is now attacking democratic candidates, had this to say about the entire democratic county ticket:

"It will take a ticket composed of your strongest men to make a showing in the fall election against the ticket nominated Saturday. This by way of a pointer to the republican convention. * * * Indeed, the democratic ticket has elements of strength which it will not be wise for the republicans to ignore, and there will be need to exercise great care in the selection of candidates if a better ticket is placed in the field by that party."

And of some of the democratic candidates, individually, the News says:

"Harry Metzger ought to feel proud of his victory. It was achieved at very great odds, and shows him to stand high in the confidence of his party. It will take a strong candidate to cut down this candidate's majority to a point anywhere near defeat. He has been a faithful, competent and obliging officer, and many men recall his kindly act when since he has been acting as deputy county clerk."

* * * * * * *

"The News believes that Mr. Clarence Edsall will be a hard candidate to defeat. There are points in his favor which cannot be controverted." Moreover, it is true that no more capable officer than Mr. Edsall ever held a position in the Allen county court house, and his efficiency and uniform courtesy have not been forgotten by the people of Allen county. The republicans will need their best men if they hope to make a showing against Clarence Edsall."

These are a few of the men whom the News and Gazette, and the scurrilous pamphlet, now charge constitute a corrupt Court House Ring.

The author of these charges could look with toleration upon the gigantic whiskey frauds of a few years ago, involving the republican president's cabinet; upon the boss Shepard's frauds in the City of Washington, and the frauds of Dudley and Dorsey in corrupting the ballot, and all the other frauds within the republican party that shocked the moral sense of all good citizens, and still work for the support of the party within which those frauds originated and that their existence. It comes with poor grace from those people, to manufacture and circulate false charges against their neighbors for the sake of, and with the hope of, getting a few of their dependents in public office in Allen county.

CLERK'S FEES.

The portion of this pamphlet relating to the alleged illegal fees in the clerk's office, was prepared by one I. V. Harris, an attorney. This man has estopped himself from talking about excessive fees.

As attorney for one Postal, in the case of Postal vs. Bruton in the Allen circuit court, on June 23, 1894, he received a judgment for $293, and took a lien on the judgment for $113 for his alleged attorney's fees.

See order book 28, page 553.

He collected the money, kept out his fee of $113, and his client, Postal, afterwards sued him for excessive fees, which suit is now pending.

This is the man whom the republican managers have put forward to charge democratic officials with exorbitant charges.

This man Harris makes a list of estates and charges that illegal fees were taxed in them. For their examination and decision, that list was submitted to Mr. Wm. P. Breen, a democrat, and Mr. John Morris, Jr., a republican, constituting the law firm of Breen & Morris, and they have submitted their conclusion, which is as follows:

OCT. 29, 1894.

Colonel W. Scott, Esq.,
County Clerk, City.

DEAR SIR:—In answer to your request for examination of the alleged overcharges in probate cases appearing on page 8 of the pamphlet denominated "The Court House Ring," we beg to say that we have examined each of the cases mentioned on said page. In some cases we have found that a few cents too many have been charged, and in others a few cents too little have been charged. As instancing these charges, you were entitled in the matter of the will of Milton B. Longacre to $6.31, whereas you charged but $3.50.

Under the law for the probate matters mentioned on said page 8 of said pamphlet, you were entitled in the aggregate to $11[illegible], eight cents more than you charged on the fee bonds.

Respectfully,
BREEN & MORRIS.

This is all that needs to be said about the fees in the list of estates. These two competent lawyers, one of whom always has been, and is now, a zealous republican, have convicted Harris as a falsifier. He does not give the process by which he reaches his ridiculous conclusions as to his alleged illegal fees, in other court. Presumably, he is not competent to do so. It would require too much spare here and time to single out each case, give the various steps taken in it, and the proper charge for the same, and put it before the voters before election, and it is not necessary, as one of the lists has been proven to be absolutely false.

This observation, however, may be made. In the cases named by Harris, as in the circuit and superior courts, there were, with a few exceptions, attorneys both for the plaintiffs and defendants. The following lawyers appeared for the parties in those cases, against whom the costs were taxed:

Judge W. G. Colerick.
Judge L. M. Niable, rep.
Randall & Boughman.
Vesey & Heaton, reps.
A. A. Furman and W. G. Colerick.
G. W. Kuhne.
B. F. Harper, rep.
Hon. J. F. Rothenburgh.
A. K. Aiken.
Hon. W. H. Shambaugh.
Hon. M. V. B. Spencer.
Leonard & Leonard, rep.
W. P. Breen.
Breen & Morris, rep. and dem.
J. M. Robinson.
A. B. Hittenger.
Colerick & Ryan.
G. W. Louttit.
Jas. E. Graham, prob.
J. C. Abel, rep.

Here are twenty-four lawyers who appeared for the parties against whom the costs were taxed. Each and every one of these lawyers is vastly the superior of Harris, in ability, learning, experience and standing. Who will accept the unsupported statement of Harris, which he did not dare to sign, as a conviction of each and all of these lawyers being incompetent or careless? Can it be assumed upon the statement of Harris that these lawyers did not know what the legal charges for costs were, or knowingly permitted their clients to be fleeced?

Will the republican lawyers, Judge Slusser, Vesey & Heaton, Leonard & Leonard, John Morris, B. F. Harper and J. C. Abel admit that they have permitted a democratic clerk to rob their clients by illegal fees? All fees in the clerk's office are paid by litigants and not by the tax payers. It is the duty of the attorneys to protect their clients against excessive fees.

COUNTY DEBT AND TAX COLLECTIONS.

With a view of getting figures and statements to slander the board of county commissioners and the county auditor, the republican managers employed George B. Crane to go through the books of the auditor's office. Mr. Crane is an honest and reputable citizen and would not lend himself to the scheme of misrepresentations and falsehoods desired and reported that he found nothing wrong. Despairing of getting any one in Allen county mean enough to do the dirty work the republican managers imported a man from Huntington.

The first column of figures in the pamphlet, and as published in the anonymous pamphlet, shows the desperate character of the work in which the imported slanderer, of same one else was engaged.

On page 3, of the pamphlet, the year, the levy for county purposes, and the taxes collected are claimed to be given. As an example, they state the taxes collected on the levy for 1893, at $474,-854.34, when everyone knows that those taxes have not yet been collected, and that the people are now paying the last installment. An another instance of flagrant unfairness and misrepresentations, the total tax collected, state, county, township, school, ditch, gravel road and all other taxes, are stated as having been collected for county purposes. Take as a sample the year 1892. The statement in regard to that year, is as follows:

Date.	Levy.	Tax Collected.
1892	$0.31	$452,826.82

This clearly reads, and was intended to read that for the year 1892, $452,-826.32, was collected for county purposes on a county levy of Thirty four cents on each $100 of the taxable property of the county. The total taxable property of the county, was about the same as now, $11,309,819. The levy for county purposes was thirty-four cents on each $100. Any school boy can make the calculation and know that the tax for county purposes could not have been over $140,493.88.

The books of the auditor's and treasurer's offices show just what the levy was for each year for county purposes. Just how much was collected for county purposes each year, is shown by the auditor's certificate as follows:

Year.	Levy for Co. purposes.	Total amt. paid for Co. purposes.	Amt coll. as falsely charged by Rep.
1888	.76c.	$132,485.46	$236,548.57
1889	.60c.	166,012.95	334,914.74
1892	.36c.	142,990.70	344,068.91
1893	.36c.	134,961.69	339,465.14
1894	.34c.	141,291.71	347,219.89
1890	.36c.	165,446.42	359,226.35
1891	.35c.	145,845.55	408,214.11
1892	.31c.	140,196.60	400,504.45
1893	.36c.	First installment, 7,186.70 | 30 per cent added, 68,786.70	123,758.06
Total, 1893, 127,573.61		estimated
1894	.37c.	141,177.51

I, Andrew T. Gluttig, auditor of Allen county, hereby certify that the above and foregoing states the levies and the exact amount collected for county purposes for the years named and that the estimates for the years 1893 and 1894 are correct.

ANDREW G. GLUTTIG,
Auditor of Allen County.
Oct. 29, 1894.

This anonymous pamphlet charges an excess of more than $200,000 collected for county purposes annually than the true amount. This, however, is a small matter to the anonymous falsifier.

It is demonstrated by the foregoing statement that the amount of taxes collected for county purposes for the year 1891, collected in 1892, was $42,-253.17 less than for the year 1893, collected in 1893. That the amount that will be collected for 1894 will be $71,-312.95 less than was collected for 1893.

It is also conceded by all that the county debt of $300,000 about ten years ago, has been reduced $130,000, so that only $170,000 remained to be paid. There is now in the treasury for payment for part of this remaining debt, as it matures, $17,000 which reduces the actual debt to $153,000. Thus it appears that the amount taxed for county purposes is being reduced year by year, and the county debt rapidly paid. It will be remembered too, that Allen county is the largest county in the state, and by reason of the number and peculiar course of its rivers, requires more bridges than any county in the state. The following statement shows amount expended for bridges from 1885 to 1891:

Allen county, Indiana, bridge expenses as shown by the auditor's June report for each year.

1885	$ 49,850 19
1886	35,503 41
1887	27,511 23
1888	31,418 01
1889	44,000 06
1890	74,006 00
1891	36,016 97
1892	42,957 21
1893	57,704 87
1894	29,873 91
Total	$403,194 95

We assume no risk in stating that the affairs of the county have been as economically administered as any county in the state.

The total compensation of the three commissioners, less livery hire, is given at $2880.14 per year or for each commissioner $960.04. In Marion county, where not so much work is required of the commissioners as here, each commissioner has a fixed salary of $1800.00. In this county, a part of the pay allowed to each commissioner is for inspecting bridges, and all of the livery hire is expended in this way. There is no more important work for the commissioner than this, and nothing that will save the county so much. The supreme court has decided that it is the duty of the commissioners to make a close inspection of all the bridges in the county, and that if that duty is neglected and any one is hurt by reason of a bridge being in any way out of repair, the county must pay the damages. Some of the counties in the state have been compelled to pay large damages because of a failure by the county board to properly inspect the bridges.

Would anyone expect the commissioners to walk over this, the largest county in the state, to inspect all its bridges?

Would republican commissioners walk over Allen's 710 square miles of territory, in the building of new and inspecting of old bridges? Can voters and tax-payers be deceived by such miserable stuff as is contained in this misigned circular?

The cry that is now raised by republican leaders, is the same that they have indulged in each campaign, and will amount to no more than in other campaigns.

Each year the auditor has published his report, showing in detail the management of the county affairs, and no word of objection or criticism is made by any one until the end of the campaign, and then it is only for the purpose of attracting attention from the corrupt and devilish campaign methods of republican managers.

COMMISSIONER STELLHORN.

It is also charged that one of the commissioners has been selling lumber to the county for repair of bridges. The following statement of W. H. Goshorn, superintendent of bridges, fully disposes of that charge:

FORT WAYNE, Ind., Oct. 27, 1894.
To the Voters of Allen County:

An anonymous pamphlet has been widely circulated throughout the county, charging Commissioner Henry Stellhorn with selling his own lumber to the county. I wish to say that the lumber referred to was not purchased under contract by the county, but by me directly of William Bossker, by virtue of my office as bridge superintendent of Allen county. I wish to add further, that such lumber was bought for the relocating of old bridges near the mill then operated by Mr. Bossker, at the regular and market price, and for the reason that by the nearness of the mill to the bridges repaired, heavy expense for hauling was saved to the county.

Respectfully,
W. H. GOSHORN.

This anonymous circular closes with the following pitiful appeal:

"We ask the voters of Allen county to lift the curtain put the treasury into the hands of a party that has no skeleton hidden in the vaults that he fears to have brought to the light of day."

What! Put the treasury into the hands of indictight assassins of private character! Men who have resorted to the dark lantern cipher methods and frantic appeals for money to carry Indiana in this campaign.

Democrats! Will you avenge this insult to your party and its candidates? Will you permit every democratic official in this county to be libeled?

The books have always been open. If any democratic official has done wrong why did not these republican managers bring him to account in a court of justice where the truth must prevail?

Put to rout these cowardly anonymous slanderers by your ballots.

JAMES M. BARRETT,
Chairman Allen County Democratic Central Committee.

Barrowcliff's Forgetfulness.

"I haven't seen Barrowcliff for quite a long time, Kildoff. What has become of him?"

"Hadn't you heard the news?"

"What news? Is he married?"

"No, not married. I mean the immense fortune that he went to England to claim."

"Hadn't heard a word about it. Tell me the whole story."

"About a year ago Barrowcliff heard that a very large fortune was awaiting him in England. I think the figure named was somewhere about $2000,000, and there were only three heirs to the estate. It was to be divided equally. So Barrowcliff went over after his money."

"What a lucky dog he is! I wonder when you and I will have a windfall like that."

"Ah, when indeed! Well, as I was saying, Barrowcliff went to England after his money. About a year ago it was, and he hasn't come back yet."

"I suppose he is so pleased with the country and his possessions that he is staying there. Well, I don't know that I can blame him very much. I think if I were to drop into a nice fortune like that I'd stay abroad for a year or two anyhow."

"No, that isn't it. Barrowcliff is not staying because he is so fond of the country."

"No?"

"No, he would much prefer to be back in the United States."

"Then why doesn't he come? What is there to prevent him?"

"It seems that when he left New York he failed to provide himself with a return ticket."—Truth.

Erysipelas and Scrofula All My Life. In Cloths For Weeks. Blisters Size of Peas. Burned Like Fire. No Rest or Sleep.
Tried Three Doctors. Did No Good. Got Cuticura. Immediate Help. Entire Cure in Three Months.
I have been troubled with Erysipelas and Scrofula all my life. Recently my limbs came out in red spots from the size of my hand down to the wrists, purple. Some of them would fester a little, but mostly dry scab, and the large spots between the joints of the hand would make me quite a little from the matter. The running by blisters come as large as peas in different places with the rest. It was all over so I have to say that to my body across my shoulders, each arm, and my limbs. I had to lay up time after time for weeks, and they would itch and burn so much I was nigh. Sleep was no sleep for me, and I could not rest. I suffered a good deal. I tried three doctors, but did me no good. Finally a friend recommended Cuticura. I sent for it, and my husband got them. I gave them a two-week trial, and they helped me right off. In three weeks I was cured. Now this was three years ago this spring. I have used no other. I have been well ever since. I have also nearly a dozen bottles of the Cuticura Resolvent, and the Cuticura Soap. I can positively say there is no other line for me but Cuticura.

THE SOUL AND SPIRIT.

D. W. CALDWELL.

Brief Sketch of the New Lake Shore President.

Affairs of the Road and Shops as Viewed by the Reporter on His Daily Rounds.

The telegraphic columns of THE SENTINEL contained a notice of the election of D. W. Caldwell to the presidency of the Lake Shore Railroad company, yesterday afternoon, but owing to the lateness of the dispatch we were unable to publish much concerning the new president.

Mr. Caldwell is a native of Massachusetts. He was born there in 1830. He has seen long and honorable service with the railroads. His career began with the Pennsylvania road in 1852, when he accepted a clerkship with the company. A year afterward he entered the engineering department of the company, and continued there for three years. In 1855 he went to the Pittsburg and Connellsville road, having been appointed its general superintendent. In 1859 he became general superintendent of the Central Ohio road and filled that position until 1874, when he resigned to accept a similar position with the Columbus Chicago and Indiana Central. In 1874 he became general manager of the road and combined with it the general managership of the Pittsburg, Cincinnati and St. Louis, the Little Miami, the Cincinnati and Muskingum Valley, the Jeffersonville, Madison and Indianapolis and the Vandalia roads. In 1881 he was promoted to the position of general manager of all the Pennsylvania lines west of Pittsburg. In 1882 he left the Pennsylvania and was elected vice president of the Nickel Plate. He was afterward appointed receiver, and on the reorganization of the corporation in 1887 he was elected president. That position he still holds. Mr. Caldwell's home is in Cleveland, Ohio. He is a bachelor, but is a liberal entertainer.

ROBBED A PASSENGER.

When the Lake Shore train from Chicago arrived in Toledo shortly after 4 o'clock yesterday morning J. W. Burton, the porter of the sleeping car, was arrested on the charge of grand larceny. Hal Tyler, one of the occupants of a berth, found that his vest, containing a gold watch and $130 in money, was missing. He reported the loss to the conductor of the train and later Burton was conversed in the car and searched. While the trainmen were making the investigation the vest and missing property dropped from Burton's person, who had it concealed under his overcoat. He was placed in charge of the trainmen and when they arrived in Toledo was turned over to the night detective at the union depot.

BRIEF MENTION.

Machinist Joseph Jordan, of the Bass works, is sick and off duty.

Fireman Tolley, of the Nickel Plate, is off duty on account of sickness.

Master Mechanic W. W. Attorbury returned from Chicago this morning.

Fireman McNutt, of the Nickel Plate, is off duty on account of sickness.

Nickel Plate Fireman Wells has recovered from his recent illness and is working again.

Chief Clerk James Fry, of Master Mechanic Atterbury's office, has returned from Delphi.

Machinist Gustave Grosh, of the Wabash shops, resumed work this morning, after a few days' illness.

Samuel Chadwick, a moulder, and a brother of John and Joe Chadwick, has taken a position in the Bass works.

Fireman Goll has resigned his position on the Nickel Plate and returned to South Whitley, his former home.

J. L. Long, W. L. Stanley and F. Liggett, Nickel Plate brakemen, resumed work yesterday after a few days' absence.

The lines in the Central Traffic association have fixed upon November 12 to advance grain and provision rates east bound.

J. C. Peters & Co. have placed a new delivery wagon on the streets. The vehicle is one of the finest of its kind in the city.

Brakeman Weber, of the Pittsburg, is on the streets again, after an illness of nearly a year. He has not worked since last January.

Engineer Cooper, who had been on the sick list, reported for duty last night. He has a run on the west end of the Nickel Plate.

J. H. Hobbock, assistant shop clerk of the Pittsburg, has returned from Chicago, where business for the company called him a few days ago.

One of the children of Charles Knothe, foreman of one of the departments at the electric light works, is sick with symptoms of diphtheria.

Charles Limecoody last night resigned as car clerk at the Pittsburg freight office. He has not yet decided what he will engage in, though several positions are open to him.

The Baltimore and Lehigh railroad company has been reorganized, and W. F. Walworth elected its president. It is to be converted into a standard gauge road at once.

Contractor Fred Boester was awarded the contract to build the house at 202 West Wayne street, for Arthur Fitzsimon, manager of the Fleming Manufacturing company.

Pittsburg engine 41, Engineer James Minor at the throttle, broke down between Hobart and Wheeler, at an early hour this morning, delaying No. 6, the mail and express train, a half hour.

The Wabash will send out a special train from Peru at 9:30 tonight to accommodate the people who wish to return home at that hour after attending the clam bake. The train will stop at all stations between Peru and Fort Wayne.

A well informed Pennsylvania official says that as soon as the Pennsylvania company comes into full control of the Vandalia among the first improvement it makes will be the doubling of the track between St. Louis and Greenville, fifty one miles.

Noah Crawford and John Patterson, of Sullivan, Ind., were here yesterday examining our electric lighting system with a view of purchasing machinery for a plant. They were the guests of Charles Munson, the Electric Light company's representative.

The business of southern lines is showing a satisfactory increase and as a result they are preparing to increase their stock of cars. Lines which are now advertising for bids on freight cars are the Queen and Crescent, the Plant system, the Florida Central and Peninsula, and the Georgia Central.

Frank F. Fowler, of the Pittsburg planing mill, dropped a heavy piece of timber on one of his feet this morning, mashing four of the toes very badly. Dr. George C. Slocum, the attending surgeon, says that amputation will not have to be reported to. Mr. Fowler boards at the Grand Central hotel.

The Panhandle shops at Columbus, Ohio, yesterday commenced the building of twenty new cabin cars to be equipped with air brakes and automatic couplers, and 100 platform cars. Eleven hundred men are now employed at these shops, and, as usual after the days begin to shorten, are working but nine hours.

An official of the Big Four says that the company will doubtless make some change in its track at Wabash, arranging it to avoid the necessity of heading in to reach the station and then backing out. In that case the shops, if rebuilt there, will be built south of the old canal bed and the station located two hundred feet east of its present site. Such a change has been contemplated for some time.

Eastbound shipments from Chicago, last week, amounted to 47,529 tons, against 48 594 for the preceding week, and 53,333 for the corresponding week of last year. Indications point to a much heavier traffic this week, particularly on lines running through this city. Both the Pittsburg and Nickel Plate did a much larger business Monday and Tuesday than they did the corresponding days of last week

As the special train bearing George Gould, which struck and killed George W. Jones at Roann a week ago Sunday night, had stopped and backed up to the scene of the accident, Mr. Gould got off his car and entered the station. Approaching the agent he inquired all about the sad affair, asked many questions concerning Jones, and wished to know his financial circumstances, and whether he had a family. The probability is that upon his return to New York the afflicted family will hear from Mr. Gould in a substantial manner.

The Railroad Gazette, in its last issue, gives a list of accidents occurring on roads in the United States in September, which shows that there were 116 accidents, in which fifty persons were killed and 128 injured. Of those killed thirty were employes, five passengers and fifteen trespassers; of those injured, eighty-four were employes, thirty-two passengers, and ten trespassers. Among the unusual accidents noted was that on the Lake Erie and Western at Lafayette, and that at Columbus, Ohio. During the month there were two accidents which did considerable damage from the explosion of boilers of locomotives.

Richard B. Green, a former employe of the organ factory, is now working in the furniture factory of John Widdicomb, Grand Rapids, Mich. This is one of the largest factories in Grand Rapids and Mr. Green says that business is so rushing that the employes are working twelve to fifteen hours per day. Mr. Widdicomb has established a free lunch room in his factory where the employes are served with coffee and sandwiches at 9 o'clock, thus enabling them to work throughout the supper hour. This is a new feature in the running of factories and the proprietor says that it is to his interest to maintain it.

George Layman, ex-passenger conductor on the Nickel Plate, this morning received a telegram from Chicago stating that William Yager, his brother in law, had been killed in that city and that the remains would be shipped here tomorrow. The deceased was a carpenter and had been living in Chicago about two years, moving there from Adams county. He was forty four years old and leaves a wife and four daughters. The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at 1 o'clock from the Evangelical church, corner of Holman and Clinton streets.

Mr. Yagle was killed by being struck by a falling iron beam while working upon the new Fort Dearborn building at Clark and Monroe streets. He was working on the sidewalk under a 1,400 pound girder that was being hoisted. The tackle gave way and the beam struck and instantly killed the laborer.

TIMES ARE BETTER.

The Figures of the Township Trustees' Books Show It.

The Money Paid Out for the Poor is Much Less This Year Than it Was Last Year.

That times are better in this city than they were a year ago is shown clearly by the books of Township Trustee Brackenridge giving the amount of money paid out by him for the support of the poor. The comparisons are made between the months of June July, August, September and October of last year and the same months of this year, and they show the following figures:

Amount paid for June, 1893, $571.79
Amount paid for June, 1894, $458.70.
Amount paid for July, 1893, $552.35.
Amount paid for July, 1894, $523.11.
Amount paid for August, 1893, $564 00.
Amount paid for August, 1894, $490.05.
Amount paid for September, 1893, $556 38.
Amount paid for September, 1894, $512.50.
Amount paid for October, 1893, $855 20.
Amount paid for October, 1894, $450.00.

The total amount paid out for these five months last year was $2,951.74, and for the same months this year, $2,435.32, or $365 42 less this year than last. The record for the month of October, now that trade conditions are rapidly beginning to assume their old conditions and men securing employment, shows $406 less for the month this year than the one of last year, or a reduction of 20 per cent.

As the township at all times is compelled to pay out a large amount for the support of the poor, the above figures prove that times are rapidly improving, notwithstanding the cry of calamity howlers.

Time was when the "glorious climate of California" did not attract tourists But year after year the tide of travel sets in stronger and stronger every fall and winter toward this favored region. STORY OF THE STARS.

ELEANOR KIRK GIVES HER VIEWS ON ASTROLOGY.

Revival of the Belief in the Influence of the Zodiac—A Well Known Writer Who Claims That the Time of Birth Predetermines Success or Failure in Life.

[Special Correspondence.]

BROOKLYN, Oct. 25.—Some people believe everything that is told them, and more people believe nothing. The first state is more desirable than the last because there is nothing so destructive to happiness and usefulness as a chronic negative condition. Then there is an intermediate class, which accepts the results of the five external senses and rejects everything which cannot be immediately weighed and measured. These are the most difficult people to help or convince. They snap their fingers and shrug their shoulders at every proposition which does not rest on a solid material foundation. The credulous man listens and needs caution to all the wonderful stories of astronomers and astrologers. The incredulous man doubts perhaps that these fellows who spend their time feeling about among the stars may have found out something, but too little to make any practical use of. They accept the telegraph and the telephone and all the other marvels of science as matters of course, admitting by so doing that everything tangible has an intangible foundation and everything that we see is dependent upon what we do not see.

Four Elementary Principles.

When we come to the constellations of the zodiac and their influences upon human life, we are met at once with a great distrust and a great interest. Even the most unbelieving are compelled to accept, after comparing the characteristics of their signs with their own talents, virtues and failings, that there is a remarkable agreement, and if they are intellectually honest they will not attribute it to coincidence or "happen-chance."

It certainly cannot be difficult even for the unimaginative reader to picture a nature made up of fire and water. Indeed it is most likely that the thought of all who pursue these lines will immediately turn to certain friends or acquaintances who will so entirely fill the bill in these respects that they will exclaim, "Oh, I am sure so and so must have been born on the first new moon in cancer, for nothing else will explain the heat and the cold, the kiss, steam and splinter of this strange life!" If our friends will pursue this most fascinating and instructive study still further, they will find everything to delight and nothing to regret therein.

Signs of the Zodiac.

The zodiac is a belt extending around the sidereal heavens, composed of 12 constellations or signs. More strictly speaking, they may be called 12 spaces, into which the sun enters at regular intervals during the 365 days, comprising one year. These signs are called aries, the ram; taurus, the bull; capricornus, the unicorn; gemini, the twins; cancer, the crab; leo, the lion; virgo, the virgin; libra, the scales; scorpio, the scorpion; sagittarius, the archer; aquarius, the water bearer, and pisces, the fishes. These 12 signs are divided into what are called triplicities—the fire triplicity, the earth triplicity, the air triplicity and the water triplicities. Thus, aries, leo and sagittarius belong to the fire domain; gemini, libra and aquarius to the air; taurus, virgo and capricorn to the earth, and cancer, scorpio and pisces to the watery domain.

It is well for the student on the science of the zodiac to first compare the characteristics of those he knows best and is especially interested in with the nature of the elements he belongs to. As has been previously stated, aries, leo and sagittarius compose the domain of fire. The sun enters aries March 20 and leaves it April 19. The sun enters leo July 23 and leaves that constellation Aug. 22. He enters sagittarius Nov. 22 and departs Dec. 21. Those born under either of these signs are children of the fire and are as different from those who come under air, earth or water as these elements are different from each other.

As leo is the only sign of the zodiac governed by the sun, the traits of character of leo people are more marked than those of others in this domain. If these people have not been properly trained in childhood and youth they are apt to grow up exceedingly sensitive, emotional and suspicious. Among these undeveloped leo people we find natural prevaricators and liars and chronic borrowers. They seldom and never expect to desire to return them. Such leo people take quick prejudices which nothing can eradicate. Consider the qualities of the untamed lion and apply them to the undeveloped leo individual, and we shall find that as some lions of the forest differ in their ferocity to do so persons differ.

Traits of Leo People.

The lion man, when master of himself, is a splendid fellow. He is king and can do anything he chooses with himself or others. He is generally magnetic, sympathetic and sympathetic. Leo people are usually excellent conversationalists and are very bright and witty. They are said to radiate a luminous substance which endows them with an attraction similar to the solar influence which dominates them. This quality or force gives them a remarkable ability in molding public opinion and swaying great audiences. When this power is used for evil, as often is by the undeveloped leo person, its pernicious effects can scarcely be exaggerated. Aries is the positive pole of the fire principle, and sagittarius the negative pole. Leo is the middle pole, and while he has likewise positive and negative poles he acts upon and in unison with both these conditions or principles.

WERE FORCED TO PLAY.

The Baltimores Knew They Were Not in Championship Form.

There were many persons who predicted when the Baltimores decided to play the cup games that Hanlon's ex players wouldn't score a single victory. This prediction has come true, and to those who were on the inside it was not a difficult prediction to make.

In the first place the Baltimore men never wanted to play for the trophy at all. From the start they could see in it nothing advantageous to the national game. The league season was over, and to play this series meant that the champions might be defeated and that the prize for which all of the clubs had been battling for six months might in less than a week be placed in a second any light.

When the difficulty arose about the division of the receipts the Baltimore players were even more strongly convinced that they ought not play the series, and accordingly, the championship being settled and there being nothing further to play for, the men let up in their work. The same rules of personal conduct off the field were not observed. The boys took things easy in remaining games and did not put their accustomed ginger into their work.

Steam Dye Works.

The only establishment in this country using ELECTRICAL CLEANING APPARATUS, which cleans all kinds of garments without injury.

The attention of engineers and owners of steam boilers is called to the RED SEAL BOILER COMPOUND. It will successfully remove the scale from steam boilers, and also prevent the formation of scale. It is well known that the scale is a powerful non-conductor, and that the waste of fuel is in proportion to the thickness of the scale which becomes attached to the shell, flues, tubes and other parts of the boilers, causing a loss of fuel ranging from one to thirty-seven per cent.

The Red Seal Boiler Compound is entirely free from acids, and does not injure or corrode the iron. In its action it does not vaporize or pass off with the steam. It can be used with perfect safety by Breweries, Dye Houses, Hotels, Refineries, Laundries, and many other establishments too numerous to mention, where pure live steam is required.

It will prevent incrustation and the forming of new scale, without injury to the boiler. The mineral impurities are gradually softened and dissolved, and are then held in suspension until such time as the boiler is blown out under pressure, or washed out when cold.

The compound is in powder form, dissolves easily in warm water, and, as a liquid, can be applied to the boiler through the pump or injector, or in any other convenient way.

All we ask is a trial of RED SEAL BOILER COMPOUND, and we will convince the most skeptical that it is a superior article to many of the so-called boiler compounds on the market.

Directions and price list cheerfully furnished on application.

I Wonder Why

So many women will continue to suffer when help is so near.

It is queer. They avoid society and are reluctant to make the least effort.

Further investigation discloses irregularity of periods, dizziness, faintness, accompanied by a crushing sense of bearing down and perhaps leucorrhœa. Yet they would like to be well.

Oh! why don't they believe:—

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the most marvelous cure for all this trouble. Thousands of American women are living testimonials of this great truth.

A purely vegetable remedy.

An Irish citizen this morning was about complaining of the mud on the cross streets and wanting to know why some of the vehicles tax money was not used for such purpose. Some of the streets were scraped up but not all of them and the mud was very thick on some of the crossings.

Bookworms over the world and all lovers of literature will tonight think fondly of Bobbie Burns, who taught the universal brotherhood of man and sang the sweetest love songs in the language. He is the patron saint of All Hallowe'en, although he had no niche in "Alloway's auld haunted kirk."

The friends of Pastor and Mrs. Northrop, outside and inside the church, are invited to the housewarming at their residence, 141 West Wayne street, tomorrow afternoon and evening. Refreshments will be served from 5 to 8 o'clock. A special reception will be given to the young people from 8 to 10 o'clock.

While going to a political meeting last evening a team belonging to Col. D. N. Foster ran away on West DeWald street. In the carriage were Col. The Lafayette Daily Courier says: "Col. R. P. Dallart has just received from a Fort Wayne friend a cannon ball supposed to have been fired from the old cannon in Fort Wayne one hundred years ago. It was found in the bed of St. Mary's river, a half mile from the site of the fort, and has a quarter of an inch of rust on its surface."

Mayor Oakley has received a notice from a society for the protection and education of waifs and newsboys which will hold a meeting at Pittsburg next month, asking him to be present or to send delegates to the association. The association includes the governors of states and the mayors of cities or their representatives. Gen. R. G. Alger, of Detroit, Mich., is president of the society. Mayor Oakley has appointed C. D. Law, superintendent of the Pittsburg road, and E. W. Applegate, city editor of THE SENTINEL, as delegates from this city.

Yesterday morning Tom Brickley, owner of a stock farm west of Bluffton, and his colored hostler noticed a large eagle rise from the race track and fly into the woods. They pursued it and two shots brought down the bird, a magnificent specimen, three feet tall and measured seven feet three, from tip to tip. Just why people are so desirous of killing off eagles is one of the mysteries which is yet to be explained. Although adopted as the emblem of this great land and honored in song and story, yet the bird is rapidly becoming extinct. The eagle is not good for food and does but little harm. Therefore, why should it be shot?

FRUIT HOUSE.

IMPS OF HALLOWE'EN.

They Will Hold Their Carnival Tonight.

Many Society Gatherings Planned to Celebrate This Occasion—Peep Into the Future.

Tonight is Hallowe'en—Nut night" in ancestral vernacular—night of "bobbin' apples" and for the "going sweethearts and for settling nuts to roast in pairs to coax lovers secrets from the future. It is also a night for tying cabbages on doors and unhinging gates, setting "Anne knockers" going on the window sills of staid and serious residences and playing all manner of pranks against the peace and dignity of the people who have grown too old to recall lovers' names in apple parings.

On this night there is usually enough nonsense, which on the following morning with gaping, empty gate ways, overturned benches and ridiculously misplaced furniture, excites a spirit of wrath in those not at all in touch with the heathenish notions of Hallowe'en.

But Hallowe'en is after all, in these modern days the special time of fun and frolic. Not to speak of the rude sports with which boisterous youths celebrate the evening, there is a flavor of romance clinging about it that rightly endears it to all who have a passion for prying into the future, especially when a sweetheart or a lover is the object of the prophetic quest. In the folklore of the Saxon races the possibilities of Hallowe'en are ever prominent, and some of the recipes for divination, of its own true love, though not without interest to the curious in the hills, are not without interest to the swains and sweethearts of today, and they will be the most interesting features of the many entertainments planned for this evening.

THE HISTORY CLUB.

The "History" club is the name of a new social organization that has recently sprung into existence. The organization was completed last night at a meeting held at the residence of Mrs. Hugg, 143 East Wayne street, where the following members were enrolled: Clara DeWald, Mamie Manning, Mamie Benedict, Agnes Rhodes, Gertie Green, Julia Wilson, Laura Grey, Georgia Smith, Pearl Heaton, Mc. Kepoll, Henry Link, Geor. Mahler, Clem Noll, James Gordon, Edw. Turner, Frank Thomas Hedekin, C. Symphney, Tom Coughlin, and Mary Hugg, as its name implies, to study history, but a portion of each meeting night will be devoted to lighter amusements. The following were elected officers: Miss Mamie Manning, president; Mr. Henry Link, vice president; Mr. Clem Noll, treasurer, and Miss Gertie Green secretary.

Last evening Master Harry Hatfield very pleasantly entertained a number of his friends with a jolly little Hallowe'en party at his home on E. st Main street. Among the guests were Misses Ada Higgins, Alma Foster, Rinkel, and Master Hatfield, George Eggeman, Francis Williams, Ollie Beach, Donald Mangen, Bradly Link.

The meeting of the Students' Art league last evening was one of an especially interesting nature and there was something delightfully Bohemian in the eating of nuts and apples during the reading of the papers. Miss Fannie Winch gave the members a very clear idea of "How to Look at a Picture." Miss Agnes Hamilton's paper on "What Constitutes a Composition," was an excellent one and illustrated in a very pleasing manner.

"You didn't know—did you?—that insurance can be compared by wire? I can tell by each one of the people who talk to me just what his disposition is," says the "Central" at the telephone office, "and how he treats his clerks and employes, or, if he is an employe, just what sort of a fellow he is. The 'phone sharpens most people's voices a little, I know, but I'm not meaning that; it's their way of talking. I don't mean, of course, that the slow man at the phone is slow in his business. But I can always tell if he is a gentleman. People who would be polite to me if they saw me are not in this reckoning. They are talking to an unknown creature, and by the way they speak to it, at the other end of the wire, I get to know what sort of people they are."
